PREDICTS CUT IN RAILROAD RATES

Illinois Central President of That Opinion.

Freeport Ill April 6—The belief that railroad rates are going to be reduced was expressed here today by C. H Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad company in an address before the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs of this city

'I believe that rates are going to be reduced,' he said, 'How soon, I cannot say, it ought not to be until traffic is increased to the point where earnings will be sufficient to safeguard the public's tremendous stake in the railroads and when costs have been still further reduced"

ACCEPTED LOSSES.

Mr. Markham made his prediction following an outline of methods employed in financing and operating railroads. He pointed out that railroad executives recognizing disturbed business conditions of last year refrained from asking that rates be increased despite the fact that "existing rates fell short every month during the year of earning the return designated by law as fair and reasonable"

HELPED FARMER

"The railroads did take notice of troublesome agricultural conditions," he added, 'and on Jan 1, 1922, they put into effect reductions in freight rates on farm products which will cut many millions of dollars of their revenues this year"

SEEK EFFICIENCY

The statement did not preclude the possibility that changes may be expected in the bureau and in other government departments as the work of bringing the government service up to the highest standard of efficiency goes on Such changes are predicted by high officals generally.

Berry on Stand Tells of Threats of John Hanrahan

Letter Introduced in Monticello Trial Tells of Lost Love of Accused for Anna Hanrahan.

Monticello, April 6—The tragedy of a lost love and broken heart cried aloud from the pages of a letter that was introduced Thursday in the trial of Claude Berry, under indictment for the murder of John Hanrahan The letter was offered by the state and contained statements which indicated without explanation that Berry had threatened the life of Hanrahan. It was a plea for a reawakening of the love of Anna Hanrahan, daughter of the slain man, between whom and Berry a coldness had grown.

STATEMENT IN LETTER.

In the letter was this statement. "If you won't come back, John Hanrahan will pay for it and take it from me he will pay dear, for I know of three people who heard him threaten to kill me. I am not bluffing. You know that when I say a thing I will do it."

Concluding the letter he said 'I am not sore, just broken-hearted"

BERRY CALLED.

Berry was called to the stand in sur-rebuttal and explained that he meant only by this to threaten to bring a damage suit against Hanrahan and make him pay in that way.

Claude Berry related in court Thursday morning the story of the tragedy in which he was one of the principal actors, and undergoing a grilling cross examination by counsel for the state, He stood the ordeal well and at no time lost his composure, After he related in considerable detail his activities of the last twelve years since he came to Piatt county including his overseas service in the engineering corps he told the story of his love for and association with Anna Hanrahan, then told of the trouble with the father to which it led.

OBJECTED TO COMPANY.

He said that he met Miss Hanrahan after his return from service and kept company with her for some time, to which her father did not then object. Objections were raised, however, last summer, but he continued seeing the girl at intervals. In the meantime Anna, he said, had told him that again and again her father had threatened to kill him. He told, too, of Hanrahan's slapping his daughter in public on the street and of accusing him of putting the girl up to disobedience to parental authority

He also was informed by Earl Cathcart that Hanrahan had threatened to kill him.

He said that just after Hallowe'en last year word came to him that Hanrahan was accusing him of certain acts of vandalism and had said there was to be trouble about it. On the following Wednesday he began to carry a revolver which he had purchased a few weeks before.

TELLS OF FATAL DAY.

Young Berry then told of events of the fatal day. He received a typewritten copy of a letter which he had written to Miss Hanrahan and was informed that a barber had made the copy at the instance of the girl's father. It enraged him and failing to learn more about it at the barber shop he left with the remark. "By God I will find out"

He said he then went to his supper, then to his room, and packed his grip in preparation to leave town Later he went down to the garage and to an outside toilet and when returning he met Hanrahan on the sidewalk

STORY OF SHOOTING.

His story of the altercation and shooting was as follows.

"First, I said, what are you fellows trying to do to me," meaning to ridicule about the letter

'Hanrahan said 'We are going to make a damn fool out of you'

"I said: 'You can't make no damn fool of me.'

"Hanrahan said. 'Take off those glasses and I will show you'

"I told him I would not do so

'Then Hanrahan said: 'God damn you, I'll make you take them off,' at the same time jumping at me and putting his hands to his hip pocket as if to draw a gun.

"Then I pulled out my gun and shot him."

FIRED FOUR SHOTS

Without prompting, Berry illustrated the manner in which he said Hanrahan grabbed him

Continuing Berry said they were close together and he fired four shots as fast as he could In answering a question of his counsel Berry said: "I shot him because he had threatened me and reached to his pocket I was afraid he was going to kill me I had no motive except to defend myself. I did not mean to kill him, but to stop him and save myself."

The cross examination failed to entangle Berry or change his statements

STATE RESTS.

Berry's story of threats was corroborated by other witnesses At the convening of court Thursday morning, State's Attorney Edie announced that the People's case would rest. The last two witnesses for the state were examined Wednesday evening, Rachel Bickel, a young girl, who said she saw two men on the sidewalk before the shooting and J. C Rodman who saw the flashes of the gun

The defense began almost immediately and after a brief examination of J. S Cooper, the defense was called to the stand and testified as above stated.

COOPER RECALLED.

Following Berry's testimony Cooper was recalled to complete his statements of threats made by Hanrahan against Berry The defense then produced fifteen representative business men and farmers of Deland and vicinity who unequivocally testified to Berry's good reputation as a peaceful and law abiding citizen and a man of truth and veracity up to the time of the trouble.

At 11 37 the defense rested Then until noon the time was taken in the introduction of the letter in evidence. Arguments began immediately after noon.

Judge Sentel has insisted upon rapid work in the case in order to complete it Thursday, as another criminal case comes on Friday and he wishes to end the sessions as early as possible to allow farmers to get back to their fields.

MRS. HANRAHAN ON STAND.

(By Staff Representative.)

Monticello, April 6.—Calm, composed and with a clear voice, Mrs. Mary Hanrahan, widow of John Hanrahan, for whose murder Claud Berry is on trial in the Platt county circuit court, testified briefly in the hearing Wednesday afternoon. The appearance of the widow excited some interest, but the accused slayer of her husband showed no unusual emotion as he sat facing her while she answered the few questions put to her by counsel for the state.

BRIEF TESTIMONY.

Mrs Hanrahan stated that the

Picturesque Figure of Stage is Rose Coghlan

Famous Actress, Broken In Health, Tells Friends She Can Never Act Again.

(By Consolidated Press Leased Wire)

BY JANE COMPTON.

New York, April 6—Tears streaming down her face, Rose Coghlan, for 50 years a leading figure on the American stage, was propped up in bed in her apartment here today to bid goodbye to former associates and friends.

"I never shall act again," she feebly murmured, groping in the fragments of a wavering memory as she tried to identify all who pressed her hand.

PLAYED LAST ROLE.

The doctors say that her premonition is a true one They do not expect this breakdown to prove fatal. But they say the 71 year old invalid has played her last stage role.

That was the reason for today's goodbyes. It was farewell to the stage, to the host of admirers and co-workers and to a cherished dream that once more, in this springtime, she would shine as a star behind the footlights. Failing memory has made impossible production of the projected play. Physical weakness, then complete collapse with that knowledge, and poverty completed the grim trio.

POVERTY'S TOUCH.

Bits of ancient furniture, fruit of many years collection, are being sold from the 42nd street apartment Within a few days Miss Coghlan will be taken to a country village where the physicians hope rest will restore her shattered nerves. Today—hardest blow of all—those costumes in which Rose Coghlan made "Peg Woffington" and "Nell Gwynn" live again: those gorgeous fripperies in which she played the prettiest "Lady Teazeal" Broadway has ever seen, were put on for sale to purchase comforts for their owner.

"I was Peg Woffington in this," Miss Coghlan murmured when they brought the wardrobe for her, her fingers straying lovingly over the magnificent crimson and gold brocade that set off "Peg's" beauty so saucily.

ANOTHER MEMORY.

"And in this—Lady Teazeal," smoothing the purple and silver loveliness, a flash of triumphant memory bringing the famous smile.

"They ask me where my money has gone? into new costumes every three weeks or so for the old stock company at Wallack's. Ah, the world won't see a stock company like old Wallack's again. Put them away: all those dresses I am done with them"

FRIENDS REMEMBER.

In a steady stream, ever since word of her breakdown went forth, acquaintances have been calling It has been like a "Queen's levee" People who had "worked" with Miss Coghlan years ago hurried to inquire whether they might stay by her bed.

"Spent her money on costumes, eh," said a girl whose eyes were red, "she spent most of it on fellow actors who went broke. She saved my life once by slipping me a ten and some good advice. They don't make people now-a-days like "Rosie."

PLAN BENEFIT.

There is talk of a benefit to be given "Miss Coghlan through the co-operation of E. W. Albe, Otto H. Kahn and David Belasco. Such thought for her welfare touches the aged actress deeply. But even this fails wholly to lighten her despair.

"I can't walk any more," she pleads with infinite pathos, "I forget I never shall act again."

The American stage will be the poorer.

[By the Associated Press]

With prospects of early peace in the coal strike given a setback by refusal of a number of operators' associations to meet with miners' representatives in Washington on Monday, April 10 as suggested by the house labor committee, union officials today reported a steady growth of the strike in non-union fields.

Following assurance by John L Lewis, international president of the union, that the miners would confer with the operators, providing most of the operators associations of the central bituminous fields were represented, Chairman Nolan of the house labor committee telegraphed the operators an invitation to meet at Washinton on Monday. While a number of the operators scale committees conferred today as to what action they should take, a sufficient number yesterday refused to attend, practically eliminating any hope for the success of the proposed conference.

While awaiting the formal replies to its conference proposal the house labor committee today continued hearing witnesses in its investigation of the coal industry.

OPINIONS CONFLICT.

The situation in the non-union fields is clearing somewhat. Union officials believe that 21,000 non-union workers will be out in the New River and Winding Gulf fields of West Virginia by the end of the week.

Operators of non-union mines insist their men are not joining in the walkout, but the union leaders have shown the deviation to the strikers ranks of diggers in a number of previously unorganized mines.

CONTINUE PARLEY.

Wage negotiations for the anthracite fields are continuing in New York. Numerous mine fires in the anthracite districts are reported and union aid has been sought to extinguish them.

The strike so far practically has had no effect outside of the mining fields and some independent operators of non-union mines report there is almost no market for coal now.

OPPOSE SEPARATE WAGE.

Petersburg, Ill., April 6—Opposition to a separate wage agreement for Illinois was expressed by the fourth Illinois sub-district miners' convention here Wednesday.

Delegates were unanimous in adopting the recommendation of their subdistrict president, Freeman Thompson, who opposed a separate agreement in his report to the convention

CANADIAN TROUBLE.

Edmonton, Alberta, April 6—An argument over the coal strike between George Mattich, a miner, and a man named Wuksnovitch at Mountain Park, Alberta, resulted in the stabbing of Mattich who died Tuesday night, according to advices received by Inspector Piper of the Alberta provincial police Wednesday.

FRAME REPLY.

Chicago, April 6—Illinois coal operators met today to decide what reply to make to the suggestion of Chairman Nolan of the house labor committee that the operators of the central competitive field meet with the miners in an effort to settle the coal strike.

At the start of the meeting several operators said that it would be short as they already "were in thorough agreement on the matter" although refusing to say what action might result.

The Illinois operators repeatedly have refused to go into a central field meeting although seeking a separate state agreement with their men.

Tradition of Sea Unearthed By Strange Tale of Voyage

BY G. W. TUTTLE.

(By Consolidated Press Leased Wire.)

Savannah Ga., April 6.—The American ship Masuda, just in from Glasgow, with flag at half mast, has brought with her a strange tale of the sea. Another superstition has been revived. There is a great shaking of heads and many an "I told you so" among the seafaring men now in the port.

Those who have followed the sea know the old tradition that if a bird lights upon a vessel after it leaves port there is sure to be a death on the voyage.

THE OMEN COMES.

Shortly after the Masuda sailed from Glasgow a little less than two weeks ago, two carrier pigeons came aboard. One of them perched for a moment upon the shoulder of Edmund Sprueill, an American seaman. It was as if the hand of death itself had reached out for the man.

John Olsen, 56 years old, a long time follower of the sea and "Bos'n" of the Masuda, told the captain that the presence of the pigeons on board was a bad sign.

SPRUEILL DIES.

"Trouble is sure to follow us" he told the skipper and the bad omen quickly spread through all the crew.

On Saturday last Sprueill, who was a young seaman, had an attack of acute indigestion and by Sunday morning he was dead. He was buried at sea and the vessel continued its voyage to Savannah.

As the ship was entering port, Olsen, the "Bos'n" was sent to fix some lines that lay on the deck. While at work he slipped and fell breaking one leg and two ribs. He died today in a local hospital as the result of his injuries. And there is no sailor man in all the port today who will dispute the point with him.

MAROA.

Alfred Pulliam, who has been here on a week's visit, returned the first of the week to Chicago where he is attending the University of Chicago.

F. J. Braden, who recently sold his property on West Washington street to J. T. Cox, Illinois Central agent here, moved Monday to rooms over his garage and Mr. Cox and family moved to their newly purchased home. For many years the company's agents here have occupied living rooms at the depot. These rooms will now be occupied by Sam Berkler, telegraph operator.

The Upper Ridge Threshing company has purchased a new engine, trading in the old one on the deal. George W. Cooper whose threshing outfit was burned last summer, has purchased a new engine and separator.

Herbert Bricker is carrying the mail for Wray Cramer who has been sick since Saturday.

Mrs. Harold Bolen was brought from the John Warner hospital Tuesday to her home north of town. She had been in the hospital about two weeks.

S. A. McKinney went to Kenney Tuesday and spent the day with his brother, John, who has been in failing health the last year.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Maroa Manufacturing company, which was postponed March 11 on account of sickness will be held Saturday evening at eight o'clock at the office of the Schenck Cigar company.

A show will be given here Thursday night, by home talent.

TULIPS WILL BE IN BLOOM EASTER

Frank Torrence Expects To Have a Real Flower Show.

Frank Torrence, park custodian, believes that he can have a real flower show on Easter Sunday as he says the tulips now appear to be coming along at such a rate that they should be in bloom on that day.

The grass in the parks is taking advantage of the cool moist days, just the kind of English weather which is most favorable for this plant, and the parks are rapidly getting into their new spring dresses. Green is the fashionable shade this spring as usual.

TO KEEP HEART OF FORMER EMPEROR

Funchal, April 5.—The heart of the former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary was removed Wednesday night. It will be sent in a glass jar enclosed in a silver casket to Austria. The present intention is to send the body to Hungary.

All business was suspended Wednesday for the funeral of Charles. Large crowds lined the route of the procession to the church. The local authorities and King Alfonso of Spain sent wreaths to be placed on the casket. The floral piece of Alfonso contained a ribbon on which was inscribed the words "From Alfonso XIII to Charles of Hapsburg."

Former Archduke Felix, son of Charles, was reported Wednesday as improving.

Shoulder Injured.

Clifton Arnold, sixty-seven, of Central City, Ky., was taken to the Decatur and Macon County hospital Wednesday suffering from a dislocated shoulder. He is said to have been bumming his way on a Wabash train, and he said that he was pushed off the train at the North Main street crossing.

TINY WATCHES.

Paris—Making a virtue of necessity or an ornament of an utility is what the dress accessory designers are doing at the moment The watch, none other than the ubiquitous time piece, is now the central motif for decorative purposes. Wrist watches there still are jewelled all over and set in jewelled bracelets But the very latest thing is to have a tiny watch, rimmed with brilliants set into the handle of your fan—to time your flirtations

A clever little oblong watch is inserted in the front of a clever little oblong wrist bag the watch enamelled to match the silk of the bag An arrow of diamonds meant to be pinned diagonally across the girdle has a square watch hanging from it at the end of two crossed ribbons.

JUMPER BLOUSE.

London April 6—No article of dress is more popular just now than the jumper blouse It comes in a score of styles One trotteur costume seen on a recent warm day was of gray hop-sack lined with tomato red crepe de chine With this went a tomato red jumper on the girdle of which was a design of appliqued flowers in the gray hop-sack The newest jumpers have round necks and sleeves ending above the elbows

BLACK PAJAMAS!

Chicago, April 6—A shop here is featuring black silk pajamas. They are much more gay than pajamas in colors, for the black is heightened by embroidery in purple, vermilion and yellow across the breast, down the back and around the knees Further brilliance is added by long silk fringe around the ankles, the fringe repeating the embroidery colors With the black pajamas are worn silk slippers in some one of the gay colors

Extremes Meet in Season's Blouse Models

America's whole-hearted acceptance of the sporty looking English tailor-made suit of rough tweed or homespun is having a decided influence upon the blouses of the season. Mannish shirtings and severe tailoring mark the accepted sport shirt which women are buying now to wear with their tweed suits Stripes are especially favored for these mannish blouses

However her delight in English-looking togs cannot alienate the affections of the American woman from the elaborate blouse which is accepted in polite society for so many varying occasions.

In some of the newer blouses cretonne is used only for trimming bands, but in one model the cretonne, gaily flowered, forms the entire body, and the loose flowing sleeves are made of the silk Little bows of plain satin or ciré ribbon give a Parisian touch to the neckline

There seems to be a positive increase in the popularity of beads, if such a thing were possible Beaded blouses are seen among the newest models arrived from Paris, from waist length to long beltless tunics which reach almost to the hem of the skirt

Striped voiles are very charming, and some of the newest dimities and other cotton novelties are in themselves so decorative that almost no trimming is used, except, perhaps, fagotting and a tiny ribbon bow at the neck

While the mannish blouse has usually the long, narrow sleeve the costume blouse of Georgette or other soft silk tends to feature the wide and long sleeve, which may hang open at the hand, mandarin fashion and perhaps weighted with beads or embroidery, or be gathered into a cuff or frill at the wrist

Not easily, however, will women give up the comfort of short and loose sleeves, cut way above the elbow, for summer wear, and the short sleeve still remains modish, although the long flowing sleeve is newer and seems dressier.

We Guarantee, Madam

to stop falling hair in 3 weeks

—to grow new hair in 90 days this new way

or money refunded

Science discovers falling, lustreless hair due to simple infection (Sebum). Now quickly overcome. Hair actually grown on 91 heads in 100!

World-great dermatologists are now employing a new and radically different formula in hair treatment, with almost unbelievable results.

This is to offer you an opportunity to test it in your own home.

Note that it is guaranteed absolutely Guaranteed to stop falling hair in three weeks; to start a growth of new hair—lustrous, beautiful, youthful—in 90 days.

If it fails, it costs you nothing. Your own druggist signs the guarantee.

Why 6 Women in 8 have Dull, Unattractive Hair

Science has recently discovered that hair roots seldom die. They can be revived—given new life.

We have proved that conclusively by growing hair on 91 heads in 100

The method we use is new. Years of exhaustive laboratory experiments were spent perfecting it.

Now world-great dermatologists employ these ingredients.

Falling hair, dull, lifeless hair; hair without sheen or luster — 6 women in 8 have it.

The reason is a very simple infection. An infected scalp oil called Sebum. This new way quickly overcomes it. It starts to act instantly.

The Infected Sebum in Your Hair

Sebum is an oil. It forms at the follicles of the hair Its natural function is to supply the hair with oil.

But frequently it becomes infected It cakes on the scalp; clogs the follicles and plugs them. Go to the mirror and you can see it in your hair, either in the form of dandruff or in that of an oily excretion at the hair roots

Germs by the millions breed in it, then feed upon the hair. Soon your hair begins falling You note too how lifeless it appears In a short time, all the natural luster and beauty are gone.

But—and note this scientific fact—remove the Sebum and the hair reverts back to the softness and brilliancy it displayed when you were a school girl.

The Van Ess Treatment accomplishes that result. We know you will doubt it. So we guarantee it.

New hair grown in 90 days. Falling hair stopped in two weeks. Your own druggist gives you our guarantee to do these things. He signs it If we fail your money will be refunded without argument.

Where to Obtain the Treatment

We urge you to give this new way a fair trial. Remember, you take no risk.

Go to any druggist or department store today Ask for the Van Ess Liquid Scalp Massage. Written guarantee accompanies it.

Pay Nothing

Unless we grow hair. The Van Ess treatment is absolutely guaranteed. You are the sole judge. The warrant is signed by your own druggist. You assume no risk making this test.

Note This New Way

—It Massages the Treatment Directly into the Follicles of the Hair

You can see from illustration that Van Ess is not a "tonic" It combines a massage and lotion in one treatment You do not rub it in with your fingers Each package comes with a rubber massage cap The nipples are hollow Just invert bottle rub your head, and nipples automatically feed lotion down into follicles of the scalp where it can do some good At the same time the nipples give your head a massage.

It is very easy to apply. One minute each day is enough

IF WINTER COMES

By A. S. M. Hutchinson

BEGIN HERE TODAY

After eight years of married life, MARK SABRE discovers that he had cut himself off from human sympathy and appreciation. His prosaic and snobbish wife, MABEL, fails to understand his poetic temperament. At the firm of Fortune, East and Sabre, school and church outfitters, Sabre is undermined by jealousy and a partnership, once promised to him, is promised to an associate.

TWYNING. Suddenly one who understands him returns to his life. This is NONA, an old sweetheart, now the wife of the dashing Lord Tybar. Sabre learns that she is unhappy with Tybar and Nona tells him that she chose wrong. "I ought to have married you, Marko." The breach between Mabel and Sabre widens. Then Sabre learns that Twyning has become a partner.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

II

Sabre remained standing at his desk. He had a tiny ball of paper in his hand and he rolled it round between his finger and thumb, round and round and round and round . . . In his mind was a recollection: "You have struck your tents and are upon the march."

He thought, "This has been coming a long time . . It's my way of looking at things has done this. I'm getting so I've got nowhere to turn. It's no good pretending I don't feel his. I feel it most frightfully . . It was rottenly done. Behind my back. Plotted against me, or they wouldn't have sprung it on me like that. This frightful feeling of being alone in the place. More empty at home . . And now there's this. And I've got to go back to that. . . . 'You have struck your tents and are upon the march' . . 'Yes Yes . . ."

He suddenly recollected Nona's letter. He took it from his pocket and opened it; and the second event was discharged upon him.

She wrote from their town house' "Marko, take me away—Nona."

His emotions leapt to her with most terrible violence. He felt his heart leap against his breast as though, engine of his tumult, it would burst its bonds and to her. He struck his hand upon the desk. He said aloud. "Yes! Yes!" He remembered his words, "If you ever feel you can't bear it, tell me—Tell me."

He began to write plans to her. He would come to London tomorrow . . She should come to the station if she could; if not, he would be at the Great Western Hotel. She would telephone to him there and they could arrange to meet and discuss what they should do . . He would like to go away with her directly they met, but there were certains things to see to. He wrote, "But I can only take you—"

His pen stopped. Familiar words' He repeated them to himself, and their conclusion and their circumstance appeared and stood, as with a sword, across the passage of his thoughts. "But I can only lead you downwards . . I cannot lead you upwards. . ."

As with a sword—

He sat back in his chair and gazed upon this armed intruder to give it battle.

III

The morning passed and the afternoon while still he sat, no more moving than to sink lower in his seat as the battle joined and as he most dreadfully suffered in its most dreadful onsets. Towards five o'clock he put out his hand without moving his position and drew towards him the letter he had begun. The action was as that of one utterly undone if very slowly tore it across, and then across again, and so into tiniest fragments till his fingers could no more fasten upon them. He dropped his arm away and opened his hand, and the white pieces fluttered in a little cloud to the floor.

Presently he drew himself up to the table and began to write, writing very slowly because his hand trembled so. In half an hour he blotted the few lines on the last sheet.

". . . So, simply what I want to do is to let our step—if we take it—be mine, not yours. We shall forget absolutely that you ever wrote. It's as though it had never been written. On Tuesday I will write and ask you, 'Shall I come up to you?' So if you say 'Yes' the action will have been entirely mine. It will start there. This hasn't happened. And during these days in between, just think like anything over what I've said. Honor can't have any degree, Nona, any more than truth can have any degree; whatever else the world can quibble to bits it can't part it on those: truth is just truth and honor is just honor. And a marriage vow is a pledge of honor, and if one breaks it one breaks one's honor never mind what the excuse is. There's no conceivable way of arguing out of that. That's what I shall ask you to do on Tuesday and I'm just warning you so you shall have time to think beforehand."

He took his pen, and steadied his hand, and wrote:

"And your reply, when I ask you, whichever it is, shall bring me light into darkness, unutterable darkness—M."

He could hear the homeward movements about the office. It was time to go. He wheeled his bicycle to the letter box at the corner of The Precincts. As he dropped in his letter, the evening edition came bawling around the corner.

AUSTRIA
DECLARES WAR
ON SERVIA.

He shook his head at the paper the boy held out to him and rode away. What had that kind of thing to do with him?

IV

Unutterable darkness! He lived within it during the days that followed while he awaited the day appointed to write to Nona again. Whatever she said when he asked whichever way she answered him, he would be brought relief from his intolerable stress. If she maintained honor above love, his weakness, he knew, would be welded into strength, as the presence of another brings enormous support to timidity; if she declared for love—his mind surged within him at the imagination of bursting away once forever the squeamish principles which for years, hedging about his conduct on this side and on that, had profited nothing those on whose benalf they had been erected and his own life had desolated into barrenness.

He was little disposed to divert attention to the international disturbances which now were rumbling across the newspapers in portentous and enormous headlines. Ireland was pressed away. It was all Europe now—thrones, chancelleries, councils, armies.

The cauldron whose seething and bubbling had entertained some, fidgeted some, some nothing at all concerned, suddenly boiled over, and poured in boiling fat upon the flames, and poured in flames upon the hearts of every man's concerns.

On Friday the Stock Exchange closed. On Saturday Germany declared war on Russia. In Sunday's papers Sabre read of the panic run on the banks, people fighting to convert their notes into gold. One London bank had suspended payment. Many had shut out failure only by minutes when midday permitted them to close their doors. People were besieging the provision shops to lay in stores of food.

"I SAY, IT'S WAR!"

And poured in flames upon the hearth of every man's concerns . .

All his concerns, the crisis with Nona, with his honor and his love, that awaited determination, were disputed their place in his mind by the incredible and enormous events that each new hour discharged upon the world.

V

The news of Tuesday morning caused him at six o'clock in the evening to have been standing two hours in the great throng that filled Market Square gazing towards the offices of the County Times. Our mobilization, our resolve to stand by France if the German fleet came into the Chanel; lastly, most awfully pregnant of all, our obligations to Belgium—that had been the morning's news. That afternoon the prime minister was to make a statement.

A great murmur swelled up from the waiting crowd, a great movement pressed it forward towards the County Times offices. On the first-floor balcony men appeared dragging a great board faced with paper, on the paper enormous lettering. The board was pulled out endways. The man last through the window took a step forward and swung the letters into view.

PREMIER'S STATEMENT

ULTIMATUM TO GERMANY
EXPIRES MIDNIGHT

Sabre said aloud, "My God! War!"

As a retreating wave harshly withdrawing upon the reluctant pebbles, there sounded from the crowd an enormous intaking of breath. An instant's stupendous silence, the wave poised for return, Down! A shattering roar, tremendous, wordless. The figure of Pike, the editor, appeared upon the balcony, in his shirt sleeves, his long hair wild about his face, in his hands that which caught the roar as it were by the throat, stopped it and broke it out anew on a burst of exultant clamor. A Union Jack. He shook it madly with both hands above his head. The roar broke into a tremendous chant, "God Save the King!"

CHAPTER III

I

HE approached Penny Green and realized for the first time the hard pace at which he had been riding. And realized also the emotions which subconsciously had been driving him along. All the way he had been saying "War!" What he wanted, most terribly, was to say it aloud to someone. He wanted to say it to Mabel. He had a sudden great desire to see Mabel and tell her about it and talk to her about it. He felt a curiously protective feeling toward her. He ran into the house and into the morning room. Mabel was not there. It was almost dinner time. She would be in her room. He ran upstairs. She was standing before her dressing table and turned to him in surprise.

"Whatever—"

"I say, it's war?"

The Screen

Harry Carey becomes an R-C star.

"The Death Wagon," a Swedish picture, is soon to be released in America.

Teddie Gerard, star of "The Cave Girl," says a broom is the best reducer. That won't make you popular with the young ladies of the day, Teddie.

Four thousand of the 15,000 extras used by Von Stroheim in "Foolish Wives" applied for jobs when it was announced he was starting a new film. But this ain't goin' to be that kind of a fillum.

Gertrude Astor will have a prominent part in "The Soul Seeker," starring Dorothy Phillips.

"Orphans of the Storm" has run 11 weeks on Broadway. Only one picture in 5000 survives Broadway 10 weeks. D. W. Griffith has had five of 'em. No other director has had two.

"MOLLY O"

A Cinderella story is told in "MOLLY O"—a story bubbling over with comedy, yet fraught with faith, wit, humor, pathos, beauty, pageantry and romance, and graced with exquisite glimpses of human nature.

Miss Normand touches the peaks of art and the heights of comedy in her portrayal of a daughter of poverty struggling against the overwhelming odds of environment to reach the uplands of happiness.

Taking more than a year to complete and over 2,000 persons to present, "MOLLY O" comes to the screen a picture greater than "MICKEY."

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas On Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice, to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bisurated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antiacid than Bisurated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of pepsin pills or artificial digestents.

Get a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the bisurated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

DANCE PROGRAM PROVES DELIGHT

Musical College At Lincoln Square.

Opening the program of more than a dozen numbers with an "Easter Greeting" dance in which fifteen small girls danced as ballet girls and toy chicks with Bettye Jane Cooper as the baby chick which creeps out of an egg shell, the Decatur Musical College put on its annual spring dancing program at the Lincoln Square Wednesday afternoon and night and will repeat it again tonight.

All of the dances were very interesting although the entire program is brief and the little folk as well as the older girls received hearty applause from the crowded houses which greeted them.

OF REAL MERIT.

In real merit perhaps the "Russian Courtship" as danced by Janet Cozad, Maxwell and Madolin Pygman, all three of the youngsters having danced at other times for the college, was the most conspicuous among the dances by the younger group although the Pierrot and Pierrette duo by the little Brownback girls, Mary Jane and Eloise, showed an amazing sense of rhythm and unity of action.

Little Ardyth Davidson, so small that a great "O-o-oh" went over the house when she toddled out in her pink dress carrying a pink parasol to dance her number "April Showers," ensnared the fancy of the crowd as the little people always do.

OTHER GOOD NUMBERS

Among the numbers danced by the older group the "Knickerbocker Girls," Juanita Byers and Dorothy Winter, a character dance, was particularly well done and Miss Nadine Ruck's "The Scarab Ring," an oriental number, received hearty approval.

Charles Fishback danced a solo number, "Pierrot" and the program ended with a difficult "Adagio" danced by Miss Annette Van Dyke assisted by Elliott McKee following one of the best numbers of the evening, a "Gypsy Revel," by Nadine Ruck, Juanita Byers, Melba Dunn and Dorothy Winter.

TO ADVISE ON GIRLS' VOCATIONS

Industrial Council to Meet At Y. W. C. A. Next Monday Night.

Hundreds of working girls, high school seniors and university seniors are expected to attend the joint meeting of the Industrial council of the city Y. W. C. A. and the cabinet of the University Y. W. C. A. next Monday night at 7:30 in the city Y. W. C. A. auditorium on the second floor, when a special vocational guidance conference, dealing with the industrial problems of young women will be held.

The purpose of the meeting is to answer questions which young women wish to know, such as, "What fields of work are now open to women? What work shall I take up? What is the nature of some of the better branches of business work" There will also be an open question box, and other questions may be asked. Every working girl who wishes to progress, every senior who graduates this June, and other girls who are interested in business should attend.

H. M. OWEN TO SPEAK.

H. M. Owen, president of Brown's Business college, will be one of the principal speakers, his talk bearing on the opportunities offered girls and women in the various fields of business endeavor.

Miss Margaret Winslow, secretary of the city Y. W. C. A., will speak on the opportunities offered in various branches of Y. W. C. A. work.

ON HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE.

The speaker for the third discussion has not been definitely decided upon, but it is thought Miss Mabel Dunlap, professor of household arts at Millikin university, will in all probability address the meeting. This will deal with the opportunities in the household sciences.

Superintendent J. J. Richeson will speak of the opportunities in the teaching profession, some one from the hospital will tell of opportunities in the nursing profession, and some one from the public library will tell of the library profession.

A general discussion of questions will follow, and questions of all kinds, which the girls wish to ask will be discussed. Every effort will be made to get to the heart of the problems of every one present.

DEATHS.

EDWARD ELLIS, JR.

Edward Ellis, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ellis, died at 5:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the family residence, 328 West Cerro Gordo street. He was two years old last December. His death was caused by pneumonia, after an illness of three weeks. He was born in Decatur, Dec. 19, 1919. Beside his parents he leaves a sister, Pauline, and two brothers, Forest and Auburn Ellis. The body was removed to the Moran & Song undertaking establishment and prepared for burial.

S. L. LEE.

Dr. G. E. Lee 1176 Riverside avenue has received a telegram telling of the death of his brother, S. L. Lee, formerly of Decatur. Dr. Lee is leaving for Chicago Thursday night and will bring the remains back to Decatur to be buried. Funeral arrangements will be made later.

Piles

Can't Be Cured from the Outside.

External treatments seldom cure Piles.

Nor do surgical operations.

The cause is inside—bad circulation.

The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through the stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1,000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Decatur Drug Company who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.

BUSINESS WOMEN TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Name Delegates to Meeting in Springfield.

The newly organized Business and Professional Woman's club will be represented at the state convention of the Federation of clubs, which is to be held in Springfield April 14 and 15. Two delegates, Miss Helen Cleland and Miss Lelah Foster, were elected by the club at its regular meeting Wednesday night at the Y. W. C. A. as delegates to the convention, and other delegates will be selected by the executive committee.

An interesting program has been arranged for the Springfield meeting. Besides the business sessions, which will be held in the senate chamber, there will be receptions at Edwards Place and the executive mansion and a banquet at the Leland hotel. Governor Small will be one of the speakers.

DISCUSS PROGRAM.

Most of the time at the meeting of the club Wednesday night was taken up with a discussion of the state meeting and the outline of work for the local club to adopt. The program committee reported on some things it was planning for the monthly meetings and suggestions were asked from the members as to what they would like to have.

COMMITTEES NAMED.

The president, Miss Mary V. Love, who presided, announced the appointment of two committees, finance and program. The finance committee includes Miss Rinnie Bean, Miss Lelah Foster and Miss Frances Dutch. The program committee consists of Miss Elizabeth O'Keefe, Miss Marion Wood and Miss Winifred Minturn.

In order that the members might become acquainted, the roll was called and each was asked to respond by telling her name and business profession. Previous to the meeting the women had supper together in the breakfast room. About fifty women were present.

Why People With Weak Nerves and Thin Blood

So Often Fail in Life and are Trampled Down by Strong Keen, Red-Blooded Men with Nerves of Steel.

Without being aware of it you probably need more nerve food or something to supply more nerve force the same as a starving person must have bread to build flesh and tissue. For centuries science has searched for a nerve food. At last a remarkable product was brought to the attention of the Paris Academy of Medicine by a celebrated French physician which contained the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force in a form which most nearly resembles that in the brain and nerve cells of man. This remarkable product is today contained in Nuxated Iron so that you may now easily obtain what might almost be termed artificial nerve force simply by taking two tablets of Nuxated Iron three times a day after meals. Nuxated Iron also contains organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Organic iron enriches the blood and plenty of rich red blood means more nerve force, so that Nuxated Iron not only directly supplies the important chemical constituent of active living nerve force to the nerve and brain cells but it also stimulates the blood to manufacture a greatly increased supply of new nerve force.

Over four million people are using Nuxated Iron annually. From the remarkably beneficial results which it has produced, the manufacturers feel so certain of its efficacy that they guarantee satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package. Nuxated Iron for the blood and nerves is sold by all druggists.

For sale by Quaker Drug Company and all other druggists.

JUST ABOUT A RECORD

It is acknowledged by practically all that the showing made by Elmer Elder in Tuesday's township election was remarkable, it was a bigger thing than practical politicians looked for Many of these were more than doubtful that such a showing could be made

It amounts to this About 3,000 people in this township went to the trouble to write Mr Elder's name in to the ballot, to make a squared picture in front of the name then to put an X in the square And every voter found himself cramped for room in which to do this writing and illustrating

Several years ago they elected Mr Jerome Frank attorney in New York when his name was not on the ballot But in that case they were permitted to use prepared stickers, a thing which made the work much easier The New York case has been held up as the possible top notch in electing a man in spite of nominating committees or conventions

Had Mr Elder been elected here we should insist the Decatur township showing is bigger than the one had in New York as Mr Elder only came close to election the best we can claim is that his showing is the equal of that made by Mr Jerome It is true that Mr Elder doesn't get the persimmons but he grabbed off about everything else in sight.

IF THE BIG DEBTS ARE PAID

The British government has sent word to the Allies that it has become necessary to call on them to pay interest on their debt. The reason given for this is that America is demanding interest from England, therefore it is necessary to gather some funds

This serves to remind us that if the governments should pay their war debts it would not leave England in bad shape In round numbers there is owing to England from the Allied powers eight billions of dollars, while England owes four billions If everybody would only pay up, England would be four billions ahead

However, all will not pay up, for they haven't the money, and some of them are not carrying on in a way that indicates they will have it at some future time, that is within the life of this generation

If England can't collect from the other powers, no more can we It means we can put it down that much of this debt to us will be lost It is more likely we shall lose it than that England shall Those English have a way about them that assists in making collections, something we apparently fail to understand

IF YOU GO TO ST LOUIS

In St Louis Tuesday last three youthful bandits boarded a street car in daylight hours, forced thirty passengers to hold up their hands, took $5 600 from a bank messenger, then made their escape in an automobile Of course they were not apprehended

We get a story somewhat like this rather frequently and thus it may be that some of us are beginning to overlook its significance After a little while we may expect these stories will double in number and if nothing is done by way of defense we may expect another doubling after another little while Along about that stage of the proceedings it will be necessary to do something, and when people are confronted with necessity they usually find a way

Here is a daylight robbery staged in a street car with thirty people aboard and all the bandits are youthful It is a public flouting of all law and order, almost as brazen as if staged after being advertised in the papers

The $5 600 will last these cub bandits but a little while, just a few days and then they will feel the urge to go out and make another killing If you have rheumatism in the shoulders and can't get your hands up, better keep away from St Louis

ONLY PART OF THE WAY

From further reading of his testimony at Washington we learn that while John L Lewis believes in governmental regulation of coal mines he is not predisposed to run amuck on the proposition He is careful to throw in a few saving clauses

He would have the government do some regulating of the mine owners, but it must not lay a hand on wages He is opposed to even modified wage regulation, whatever it may be

We take it he will not complain if the government fixes the price at which coal must be sold no matter what wages are paid to get it out of the ground and into the market This seems to be his notion of 'regulation of the industry and he does manage to look serious while telling us about it Surely he is a gentleman of extraordinary parts

It is not meant to say that he is altogether original in holding this view—as a matter of fact it is just about what the government is doing in another field But the public has a notion it doesn't want any more of this thing, that what it now has is more than enough

NO WORD FROM ANTIS

By unanimous vote the Shelbyville council refuses to sell its light plant to the Central Illinois Public Service company It is a subject that was discussed for some time and while they were at it they wrote to other places for experience and advice

The Shelbyville city attorney read letters from fifteen cities and we are told that every one of these strongly advised municipal ownership 'even though the service is poor and inadequate

It is a little strange that all the letters were on this one side of the question Of course there is the possibility that other letters, with somewhat different advice, got lost in the mails

If a service is poor and inadequate and doesn't pay its way, it is hard to see how anybody can fall in love with it Of course if you are living in a place that has good and adequate service you may be peeved about something and tell that you would prefer the other thing Not to be reasonably satisfied with the thing we have is a peculiarity of a great many of us

POLITICS IN ZION

Wilbur Glenn Voliva's party the Theocrats carried the election in Zion City this week, defeating the Liberals by more than 700 votes

The winners stand for these propositions The earth is flat; the sun is a small body only fifty miles away, the stars are only lanterns hung on a solid dome about sixty miles high, the sun do move, and sinners must not smoke

That is the style of platform to put out if you expect to win elections in Zion City All this must be a thing of truth and substance, for is it not supported by the voice of the people in Zion? And they tell us from every side that the good people can't go wrong, that in fact they are the voice of God If you don't believe it, move to Zion City and live seven days of the week with a demonstration

AND A BUSINESS MAN!

Chairman Lasker tells us that the shipping board is in favor of the ship subsidy measure advocated by the administration

Only a little while ago they told us that Mr Lasker was quite a business man Therefore we are surprised that he should be advocating the payment of further large sums out of the country's treasury when there is not now sufficient money on hand or in prospect to meet obligations already contracted

Secretary Mellen tells us treasury receipts the coming year will be at least $215,000,000 less than heretofore estimated, which means that expenditures must be reduced that amount But Mr Lasker proposes to meet this situation by increasing expenditures—and they call him a business man'

THE SPOILSMAN'S OWN

President Harding summarily fired twenty nine executives in the bureau of engraving and naturally the performance made some noise in congress Taking his part in this racket, Senator New says "There were ample reasons for the dismissals although unfortunately there are times when the President can't take the country into his confidence

If this will pass muster, the rankest spoilsman we have will cherk up and be happy After he glances at this rule of action a moment or two he will easily enough conclude that he can act under it to his own heart's satisfaction He can take this rule and have his own sweet will and way, he wouldn't ask any thing better if permitted to send in his own order

Commodore Decatur Looks the City Over

And Writes Some Open Letters.

To Park Authorities:

This year as never before autoists will be driving through Nelson park The big majority of course will use the new road but that will not stop thousands from using the park roads in fact it seems to me that it will only cause more to go through the park drives

At present the drives are wide enough for one vehicle When they meet it is with difficulty that they pass It seems to me that it would be the safe thing to widen these drives now as they are in Fairview park This is especially true at the north end of Nelson park where the road goes down the hill makes a turn and then goes to the present Staley road

In this connection it might be said that sooner or later the new Cantrell street road connecting with the new Cowford bridge road will have to be widened to handle traffic

ENVY.

Lord, I am sick with envy! Not of those Whose sum of gold is greater far than mine,
Nor those who stand where pomp and glory shine,
But when I see another man disclose
The traits of mercy to his fallen foes
Or stand alone upon Truth's battle line
And spurn the wrong which selfish ends propose
I covetously yearn to be as fine

If it be sin to envy, damned am I,
For day by day I envy better men
Who are too big to profit by a lie
In faith and strength I would be born again,
No good man ever passes by my gate
But what I wish that I could be as great

Little Benny's Notebook

The VICTROLA EXPOSITION

The Greatest Names in Music Are Linked With the Victrola

Did you notice the picture-gallery of musical artists that forms a part of the Victrola Exposition? What a lot of them there are! And not a one that isn't known in every civilized country. And yet, much as we wanted to, we couldn't get pictures of all of them—we wouldn't have had space for all of them. Combine the yearly royalties that musical artists receive from the sale of their Victor Records and you get a sum that runs up into millions of dollars. Why the royalties of one singer alone amount to $150,000 a year.

Yet it isn't money alone that caused great musicians to choose the Victrola (most of them do record for it exclusively). It's because they were convinced that the Victrola is the one instrument that can reproduce their music perfectly. They practically entrust their reputations as musical artists to whatever talking machine they record for. Naturally then they choose the one they think best. It's a very significant fact that they all chose the Victrola. And not every musician that wants to is allowed to make Victor Records—only those who are really great. To make Victor Records is almost as great a distinction as a musician can achieve.

Here at the Exposition we'll play for you the Victor Records of any musical artist that you care to hear—records by the great opera-singers, by great violinists, and pianists, by symphony orchestras, by popular entertainers, musical comedy stars, vaudeville head-liners, dance orchestras, brass bands—we'll be glad to play any of them for you. Just ask to hear them.

And Miss Airy who is in charge of the Exposition can tell you some interesting things about Victor artists and about how Victor Records are made. She'll be glad to answer any questions about them.

Tomorrow, Teachers' and Students' Day

Music teachers and students will find much to interest them in Miss Airy's discussion of how the Victrola helps in the study of music. School teachers, too, are specially invited to come tomorrow. Miss Airy will demonstrate the special school model Victrola and explain what an aid it is in the teaching of literature, elocution and other subjects, and in the directing of recreation.

Is Your Child Backward? Eye Defect May Be the Cause

BY DR R H BISHOP

There is a considerable number of school children every year in both city and country schools who fail to be promoted because of bad eyes

These children are either eliminated entirely from school life or their education is retarded because they must be constantly repeating the lessons of the grades they have failed to pass

Some children are unfortunate enough to fail a number of times Some of these may be deficient mentally but tests have proved that defective eyes are to blame in a greater number of cases than one would suspect.

Retardation of this sort is not only a wast of the taxpayers money but is a positive detriment to the children who become discouraged and dislike school.

Not all truants are bad Many can be reformed by correction of the physical defects which handicap their efforts to succeed in the schoolroom

To force such children to attend school before their physical defects are removed is not only cruelty to the child but a vast waste of time and effort for the teacher

No child with defective eyes uncorrected by glasses is in proper condition to do the work assigned in school and for many a child close application to books involves almost unendurable eyestrain

It is but a natural consequence that such children either leave school entirely or are retarded year after year

When a boy or girl is bright and active in play but unable to concentrate his attention upon his books for an length of time there is sure to be something wrong with his eyes that needs correcting immediately

The child just starting school should undergo a complete physical examination Better to remedy faults early

About Town

AN interesting sidelight on the Long Creek township bond election is that the proposition carried last Tuesday by a larger majority than when it was first submitted three years ago The vote Tuesday was 245 to 70 while that of two years ago was 200 to 99 Both the candidates for highway commissioner were for it and both did effective work for it.

There is a good deal of feeling in Long Creek township against the flooding of the lake basin and the overflowing of the old Cowford bridge road and it was feared that there would be considerable opposition to the bonds on this score The voters, however rose above any personal feeling and again voted the township's contribution to the construction of the bridge.

The Truth About Eczema and Piles

Thousands and thousands of people says P Merson of Buffalo, are learning every week that one 35 cent box of Peterson's Ointment will abolish eczema and banish piles, and the grateful letters I receive every day are worth more to me than money.

I had eczema for many years on my head and could not get anything to stop the agony. I saw your ad and got one box and I owe you many thanks for the good it has done me. There isn't a blotch on my head now and I couldn't help but thank Peterson, for the cure is great" Miss Mary Hill, 420 Third Avenue Pittsburg, Pa.

"I have had itching piles for 15 years and Peterson's is the only ointment that relieves me, besides the piles seem to have gone" A. B. Ruger, 1127 Washington Avenue, Racine, Wis.

Use Peterson's Ointment for old sores, salt rheum chafing and all skin diseases. Druggists recommend it. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo N. Y.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

RHEUMATISM

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It.

In the year of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who are thus afflicted know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally I found a treatment that cured me completely, and such a pitiful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted, even bedridden, some of them seventy to eighty years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and sub-acute (swelling at the joints) rheumatism, to try the great value of my improved "Home Treatment," for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of such forms of rheumatism you may send the price of it one dollar but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

THIRD ARBUCKLE TRIAL NEARS END

San Francisco, April 6—Defense counsel today was expected to be nearing completion of its structure of evidence in the third trial of Roscoe Arbuckle on a manslaughter charge.

The appearance of the defendant on the witness stand yesterday was considered one of the closing moves in the effort to prove that a chronic ailment caused the death of Miss Virginia Rappe after a party in Arbuckle's hotel suite.

CONDITIONS THAT CALL FOR A TONIC

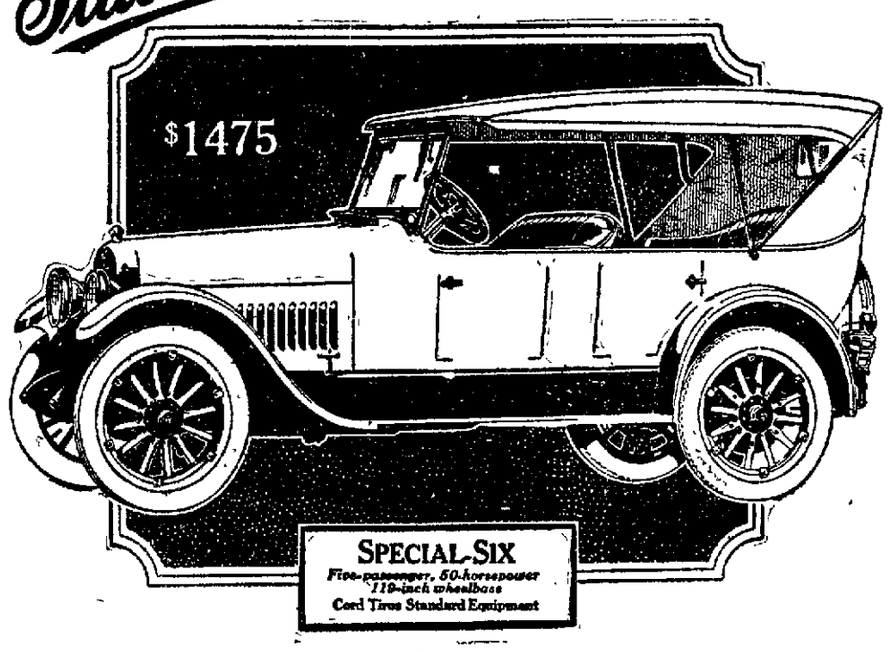

Weak, run down, lacking strength, energy and ambition, nervous, sleepless, without appetite, digestion disturbed—there are the symptoms named by a great majority of the people who have been benefited by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These tonic pills correct the condition described and if you have these symptoms you should give them a trial. They are especially good for the debility following the grip and influenza as this statement shows.

"An attack of the grip left me very weak and run down," says Mrs. Emma Silva, of No. 108 Bennington street, East Boston, Mass., "and I did not get my strength back. I was tired, had no ambition, did not have any appetite and at times I was very nervous. I could not stand any noise and did not sleep well. I had headaches that affected my eyes and my complexion was bad. I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and as I had heard from friends that they were good I gave them a trial.

"While I was using the first box I noticed that my appetite was getting better and as I continued the treatment I could see that my strength was increasing. My nerves grew stronger and I began to feel like myself. I know that I owe my recovery to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I have taken no other medicine."

Write today to the Dr. Williamas Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for the free book, "Building Up The Blood." Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

How Many Objects Beginning With "B" Can You Find in This Picture?

Here's a picture containing several objects beginning with the letter "B." The object of the game is to find the most. Fifteen cash prizes will be given for the fifteen best list of words submitted in answer to this Puzzle. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of "B-Words" will win 1st prize; the second best, 2nd prize, etc.

Without any trouble whatever you can readily see such objects as "buggy," "barrel" and "broom," can't you? Well, the others are just as plain, but the idea is to see who can find the most. I wonder how many of these "B-Words" you can find? Can you find ten or twenty, or how many? It's lots of fun—try it.

EVERYBODY JOIN IN Costs Nothing to Try

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat announces today a most fascinating and amusing puzzle game—a game in which everyone from Grandpa to the little folks can take part. It really isn't a puzzle at all, as all the objects in the picture have been made perfectly clear. There are none hidden—you can see them at a glance. No need to turn the picture upside down or sideways, or this way or that. Jot each word down as you see it, and when your list is completed send it in to The Globe-Democrat and try for the big prizes. This is a puzzle game just for our readers outside the city of St. Louis.

Wouldn't it be grand to learn at the close of this puzzle game that you had been awarded first prize and was the proud possessor of $2,000? You can use $2,000, can't you? Two Thousand Dollars will enable you to have the hundred and one things you have longed for, but have been unable to have. It will buy an automobile—a home of your own—a farm—diamonds—fur coats—pay off a mortgage. It will enable to do lots of things you have wanted money for.

Start the "word-mill" going tonight. It's lots of fun—and profitable too. Try it.

OBSERVE THESE SIMPLE RULES

1. Any person residing outside of St. Louis who is not an employe of The St. Louis Globe-Democrat or a member of an employe's family may submit an answer. It costs nothing to try.
2. All answers must be mailed on or before Saturday, April 22, 1922.
3. Answers should be written on one side of the paper only, numbering words 1, 2, 3, etc., with the sender's name and address in the upper right-hand corner of each sheet.
4. Only words found in the English dictionary will be counted. Compound, hyphenated or obsolete words will not be counted. Either the singular or plural can be used.
5. Words of the same spelling can be used only once even though used to designate different objects. The same objects can be named only once, however, any visible part of the object may also be named, and where more than one word is equally applicable to an object, any one of the words will count.
6. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words will win first prize; second best, second prize, etc. One point will be allowed for each correct word sent in and one point deducted for each incorrect word or omission.
7. Candidates may co-operate in answering the puzzle, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household, nor will a prize be awarded to more than one of any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.
8. In the event of a tie for any prize offered, the full amount of such prize will be paid to each participant.
9. All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not a subscription to The St. Louis Globe-Democrat is sent in.
10. There will be three independent judges, having no connection with The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, who will judge the answers submitted and award the prizes at the end of the puzzle game. Webster's New International Dictionary will be used as reference, and participants agree to accept the decision of the judges as final and conclusive.
11. The judges will meet directly following the close of the contest and the prize winners and winning list of words will be published in The Globe-Democrat just as quickly thereafter as possible.

Note.—If you want the big Sunday Globe-Democrat with the New Marvelous Invisible Ink Feature Section (magic right before your eyes) in addition to eight full pages of comics, Beautiful Artgravure Section, Magazine Section, etc., send $2.50 additional for each subscription.

If your list of "B-Words" is awarded First Prize by the judges you will win $50, but if you would like to win more than $50, we are making the following special offer whereby you can win bigger cash prizes by sending in one or two yearly subscriptions at $6.00 each, with remittance to cover, to "The St. Louis Globe-Democrat."

For instance: If your answer to the "B-Word" Picture Puzzle wins First Prize and you have sent in ONE yearly subscription to The Globe-Democrat at $6.00 (a new or renewal) you will win $1,000 instead of $50; and Prize $500; 3rd Prize $375. (See 2nd column in prize list.)

Two subscriptions are the maximum, and these subscriptions can be either new or renewal, and they can be delivered either by mail or by the local Globe-Democrat newsdealer (if there is one), as you prefer. Your own subscription will count, and we will take subscriptions now and hold the credit on our books and start the paper at any future date desired.

If you send subscriptions be sure to specify if they are to be delivered by mail or local newsdealer (if there is a Globe-Democrat newsdealer in your town). The price is the same, $6.00 per year (Daily except Sunday) by mail or newsdealer. If you wish the big Sunday Globe-Democrat add $2.50 for a full year's subscription.

Address communications and send all lists of words and remittances to Manager Picture Puzzle Game.

RADIO SENDING POWER VARIES

BY R. L. DUNCAN.

Director ,Radio Institute of America.

Radio waves in the air behave pretty much like waves in the water.

Suppose a string is attached to a stone which is plunged in and out of the water, constantly sending out wave lengths—this is just the operation of a radio transmitter during a sending.

If the stone is large and more force or pressure is put behind it, the waves will travel outward further.

Just so with a radio transmitter. If the source of power is greater, the electromagnetic waves will travel a longer distance.

But length of the wave will remain the same, The amount of power of a sending set has nothing to do with the wave length.

Wave lengths depend on the amount of inductance and capacity in the antenna circuit of the set and the frequency with which the alternations take place in the transmitted current.

In the transmitting instrument there is an inductance consisting of a spiral coil of heavy copper wire which is variable. By means of this more inductance may be added and the wave length increased.

If the main antenna has too much inductance and the wave length is too long, a condenser of about .001 capacity is placed in series with the antenna circuit to cut down the length.

Wave lengths travel with the speed of light—186,000 miles a second.

The waves may be sent out in one direction, if the antenna is constructed directionally.

Take a large, flat stone and let the largest surface strike the water first. The waves will travel with more volume in one direction.

Congress in Tilt Over Radio

A radio speech delivered by Senator Harry S. New from his office in Washington to his constituents in Indiana has raised a storm in Congress over the use of goverment radio transmission facilities for campaign speakers. Some legislators are demanding that all political parties be given equal rights to the use of government apparatus while others favor denying the use of government stations to political spellbinders. Photo shows New delivering his speech.

Local Radio Owners.

If you own a radio receiving or sending set, send your name and address to The Decatur Review Radio Editor.

If you have any unusual experiences or interesting notes, send them to The Review.

In radio transmitting the directional aerial is used only when the transmitting stations want to throw the most of their energy in one direction.

Broadcasting stations do not use directional antennas. They want to cover the largest possible area.

AGREE ON PRICE TO PAY FOR LAND

Water Supply Co., Secures More Tracks Needed.

In the condemnation suit of the Decatur Water Supply company against Harry Parr, conservator of Frank Morrison, et al., in the county court, the jury returned a verdict Wednesday finding the value of the three and three-tenths acres of land to be taken at $80 an acre.

The Hess tract of two lots in Le Forgee & Patterson's second addition, one-sixth of which belongs to a minor, was valued at $650. On the Betzer land of 16.28 acres, partly owned by Georgia E. Betzer, a minor, the value of her share was fixed at $518.71. A value of $1.75 was placed on the Soran tract of a little less than one acre. The value of the England land, 42.07 acres, was placed at $4,816.60.

There was no contest. The values were agreed upon, but there being a number of minors it was necessary to have a formal court order.

HIS DEAFNESS CURED.

Flarnigan, Ill., Feb. 21, 1921

Dear Dr. Oneal

I was afflicted with head noises and almost deaf. In one ear I could not hear anything at all. I consulted several doctors, but none seemed to help me. I heard about Dr. Oneal and one of my friends was cured, so I tried a treatment and was cured. I can hear as good as ever now and have not had head noises since.

Yours truly

HENRY ACKERMAN.

SIX-YEAR-OLD BOY'S EYES STRAIGHTENED.

Dr. Oneal: You remember we had our boy, Byron, at your office Aug. 2nd 1920, to have his eyes straightened. They are in fine shape, and we surely are thankful we learned to know of you and your ability.

REV. O. P. HAINES

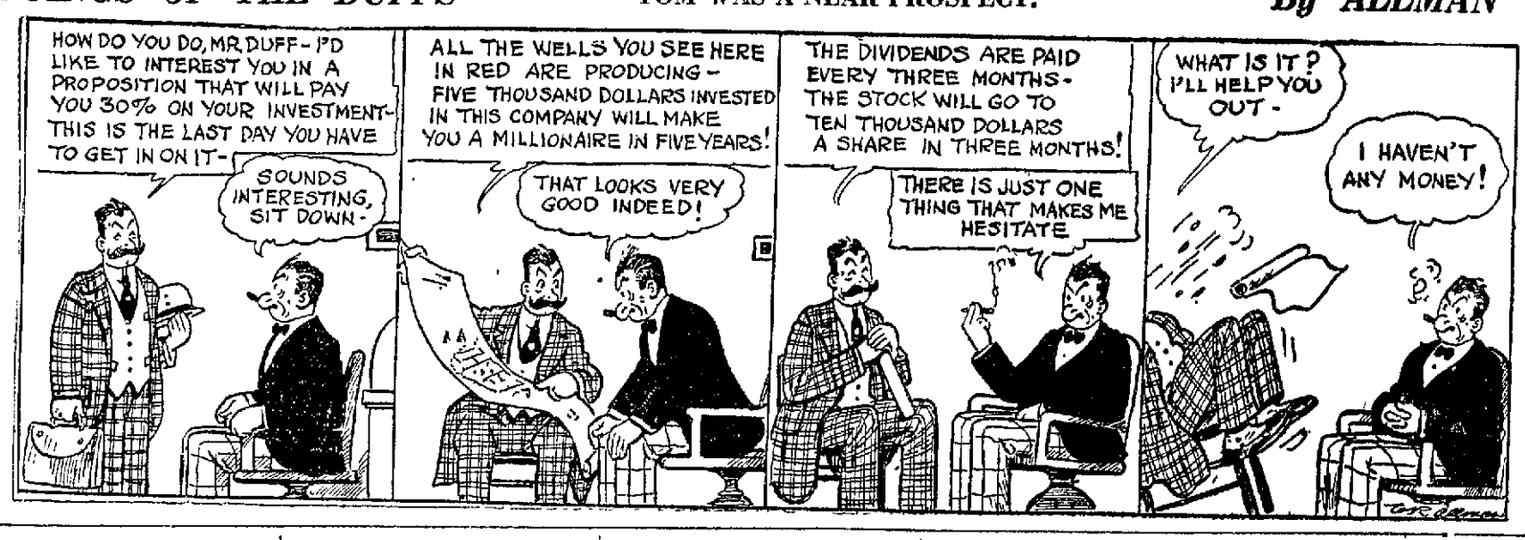

Formerly of Cerro Gordo, Ill.

Dr. Oneal invites everyone suffering with any eye or ear trouble to call on him at the Orlando Hotel for a free examination, and if he thinks he can help you he will give you one treatment free of charge to show you what it is like—how it may help you. You will be under no obligation to continue the treatment nor to pay any money unless you wish to do so. Many cases obtain immediate relief with Dr. Oneal's treatment. Take the elevator or stairway to Dr. Oneal's rooms on second floor at the Orlando Hotel. Dr. Oneal will be at the Magill Hotel in Clinton, Ill., on Thursday, April 6th.

Says Rheumatism Leaves You Forever

James F. Allen of Conesus Avenue, Rochester, N. Y., once a Pneumatic cripple who discovered ALLENRHU and with it banished every trace of uric acid and every sign of rheumatism from his body, says that every druggist guarantees a full pint bottle of ALLENRHU to stop the pain to complete recovery or money back.

It relieves at once and immediately after you start to take ALLENRHU the good work begins. It searches out uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels. Even in cases where suffering has been piteous and painful all traces of this dread disease disappear in a few days. Decatur Drug Co. and Bell Drug Company can supply you.

MONTHS OF SUFFERING

How a Baltimore Girl Recovered Her Health

Baltimore, Maryland.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home one day and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls, as the letters in your book helped me."—ROSE WAIDNER, 3018 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.

That is the thought so often expressed in letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These women know what they have suffered, they describe their symptoms and state how they were finally made well.

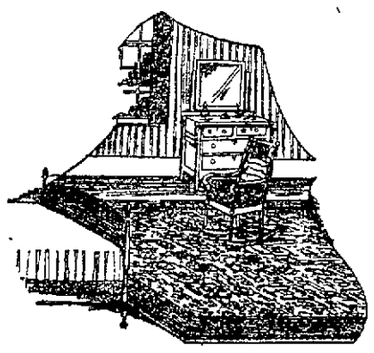

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the sickness women so often have, which is indicated by backache, weak feelings, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?

GIANTS SURE TO COP IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Billy Evans Says They Are Even Stronger Than Last Last Year's World's Champions.

BY BILLY EVANS

The New York Giants to repeat in the National League

That seems to be the one best prediction as far as either of the major leagues is concerned

The Giants were good enough to win in 1921 The club that McGraw will pilot this year is an even stronger aggregation

That naturally makes the Giants loom up as a top heavy favorite in the National League baseball derby for 1922

GREAT INFIELD

The Giants have one of the best infields ever gotten together It was strong without Heinie Groh The addition of that star third sacker rounds out the combination

McGraw will get good catching from Snyder and Smith The outfield will be strong George Burns will be missed of course Players like Burns are always missed However in Shinners and Cunningham McGraw appears to have two youngsters able to fill the vacancy

PIRATES WILL MISS SCHMIDT

Pittsburgh finished second last season, but right now it doesn't seem as if the Pirates have a chance to get so high a rating for the coming season

The Pittsburgh club is going to miss Catcher Schmidt It doesn't seem as if the club and the star catcher are going to be able to get together on the salary question

No club in baseball can pass up the services of so valuable a catcher as Schmidt and not seriously weaken its chances The youngster Gooch may prove a most capable substitute yet he will hardly fill Schmidt's shoes

Then there is the memory of the failure to win the 1921 pennant after it had seemed to be all over but the shouting In a s the c b s a particularly game aggregation that memory is going to linger with the athletes throughout the summer It isn't going to do the morale of the club any good

CARDINALS LOOK STRONG

Those two reasons make it appear as if the St Louis Cardinals who finished third last year will beat out the Pirates the coming season

The Cardinals loom up as the logical choice for second place The club lost 15 out of the first 20 games played last year That was a big handicap However once the team hit its stride there was no stopping it

REMEMBER 1921

The Cardinals came down the home stretch with a rush Rickey's team is going to remember the finish of the 1921 race, when it was going faster than any club in the National League

The situation with the Cardinals is just opposite to that of the Pirates

The Cardinals pitching could be better Another seasoned pitcher and Pfeffer would have McGraw very much worried

Boston and Brooklyn both have strengthened their lineups considerably While the Pirates on form should finish third there is a chance that the club that finished second in 1921 may be eased into the second division

If the Pittsburgh catching flivvers due to the failure of Schmidt to return both Boston and Brooklyn have a chance to nose out the Pirates

BRAVES FOURTH

Kopf at short and Marquard added to the pitching staff has added much strength to the Braves They ought to finish in the first division and look like number four

Brooklyn should head the second division followed by the clubs as they finished last season Cincinnati Chicago and Philadelphia

Pat Moran's team is a problem It has possibilities It is a young team however and may lack stability Chicago seems doomed to seventh and may find it troublesome to keep ahead of the Phillies

O'Leary Anxious For Spring Training Work

Has Twenty-Two Players Signed to Date—Kansas City Men on the Way—Other Chatter.

BY HOWARD V. MILLARD.

With twenty two players having been sent transportation and three more deals expected to be completed within the next day or so Shipper Dan O Leary is anxiously waiting for reporting day which has been fixed as April 10 for most of the candidates

The players secured from Kansas City left the Missouri town Wednesday evening and were due here Thursday afternoon O Leary does not intend to waste any time getting down to work and the eight men here along with some local talent will start hitting the ball Friday

TWO SESSIONS DAILY

Two sessions a day will be the program until time for the gong to ring O Leary plans to put them through the paces each morning and then stage afternoon battles between the teams he will select each day

O Leary has enough men on the roster who have been through the training camp grind this Spring with high class league teams to put a fast aggregation together for exhibition games and expects to give the fans a couple on Saturday and Sunday April 15 16 if possible to secure some good competition

COMMITTEE BUSY.

The grounds committee has started to make arrangements for the getting of Staley Park in tip top shape for the opener here with Bloomington May 2 and Wednesday Messers Wiley Penwell and Brilley made the first big move by signing Al Borcham as ground keeper for the coming season Al always had Staley Park looking spick and span the past two seasons and if he does as well this year the local park will be the best in the Tri Optic circuit Paint new wire in front of the stands and other improvements are to be made by the committee

WHO WILL START IT?

About the next move on the part of Decatur boosters is the arranging for a monster opener to show the Bloomington fans the way Decatur does things when they come down here to see their pets meet the locals May 2 who will start the ball rolling

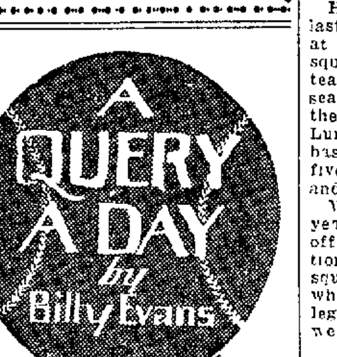

However this is a matter that should come from other sources others than the directors and officers of the Fans Association as they have plenty of work to attend to before that time

NORWEGIAN AUTO DRIVER SHATTERS WORLD'S RECORDS

Daytona, Fla, April 6 — Sig Haugdahl, Norwegian, automobile driver in a car of special construction at Daytona Beach, Wednesday drove one kilometer in 13 8 seconds five miles in 1 50 02, and ten miles in 3 minutes 56 seconds The time in each case was taken by electrical devices by a committee of the International Motor Contest Association.

The official world's records for the three distances, made under the auspices of the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association are 14 40 seconds for the kilometer, 2 00 04 for five miles and 4:09 31 for ten miles Tommy Milton holding the first two and Ralph De Palma the last record.

There is a runner on third base two are out and two strikes and three balls on the batter The next pitch is low The batter swings at it and misses The ball gets away from the catcher and rolls to the grandstand The runner on third easily crosses the plate The batter reaches second on the slip In going to second he fails to touch first base. The first baseman calls for the ball and touches first base. The umpire declares the runner on second out which retires the side. Does the run that crossed the plate score?

The runner who had crossed the plate does not score The failure of the batsman to touch first base and later being declared out for so doing makes the run void

A run cannot score on any play in which the third out is a play on which the batsman fails to reach first While the batsman actually ran to second technically he never reached first since he failed to touch it

CARL LUNGREN IN REMARKABLE WORK

Has Won Big Ten Title for Last Five Seasons.

Carl L Lundgren University of Illinois baseball coach enjoys a record that compares favorably with that of any coach in any sport

He received instruction under George Huff in 1900 1901 and 1902 when he was star pitcher for the University of Illinois nine In 1903 he went to the Chicago National League club for seven years during which time the Cubs took two championship pennants Lundgren then played with the Toronto Internationals for three years after which he began his coaching work

STARTED AT PRINCETON

His coaching career started in 1912 at Princeton where he remained for two years going to Michigan in 1914 In his seven years of coaching at the Wolverine institution Lundgren's teams met and defeated some of the best schools both in the west and east

Some of the players that Lundgren developed have become famous in the big leagues George Sisler Brandel Ferguson Knode and Parks all received their first instruction from Lundgren

RETURNS LAST SEASON

He returned to his Alma Mater last year and made an excellent start at Illinois With an inexperienced squad of players to begin with his team went through the conference season with only one defeat winning the Big Ten championship Coach Lundgren has won the conference baseball championship for the last five years four times at Michigan and once at Illinois

With seven veterans back this year Lundgren's chances to carry off the honors this year are exceptionally bright He takes the Illini squad to the south this week end where they will take on the best college teams during their annual two weeks training trip

DRIVING PILING TO REPAIR SEWER

Steam Hammer Again Gives Out Its Clank, Clank.

Residents of the southeast part of town who thought that they were through with the steady clank clank of the team driven hammer which drove the sheet steel piling at the dam day and night last year, now find that the night resounds with the hammering which the sinking of the sheet steel for the purpose of protecting the workmen when the repairs to the sewer are started at the break in the Broadway sewer in Industry Court

The sheet steel will be driven entirely across the hole where the break is located along both side of the sewer then a flume of wood will be built to carry the water in the sewer overhead across the break while the workmen build the lower half circle of the sewer When this is built the flume will be taken out, the water allowed to run along that lower segment and the upper half will be built

It is now believed that the engineers will decide to pull out the sheet steel after the repairs on the sewer have been made

It is expected that repairs on the sewer itself cannot be started before the beginning of next week

STYMIE IS DEAD! LONG LIVE STYMIE

U. S. Golf Association Rules It Out.

Chicago April 6—Renaissance of the Stymie decreed yesterday by the United States golf association brings back to all American national amateur tournaments the much discussed and seldom present golf play that has stirred golfers for several years

A golfer might play a hundred matches without once having to negotiate a stymie that is to play over or around his opponent's ball lying on the putting green between his ball and the hole and more than six inches from the player's ball and yet personal sectional and even national revolt has been threatened over this one rule of golf

MANY ELIMINATE IT

Players seldom adhere to the rules in regard to the stymie in personal matches and it has been suspended in many club affairs although its adherents assert that it lends as much zest to golf as the balk line lends to billiards as compared to the old straight rail game

What could be more interesting stymie advocates ask than a chance to pitch a ball skilfully over an other ball and watch it trickle into the 4 inch hole beyond? Or to cut the pellet with a putter so that the English imparted will curve it around the impasse and lead it to the cup Was all the complaint against a theatrical situation that is as fair for one as for another?

NO HAZZARDS ON GREEN

The trouble seems to arise from the fact that in a tight match where a player has pitched his ball to the velvety green and landed close to the hole he feels there is an unfairness if his opponent's ball by accident stops in the coveted path and causes him to lose a hole otherwise won or at least halved especially as there are supposed to be no hazzards on the green

Anyway the rules do not forbid conceding putts only recommend against such a practice and by conceding your opponent's putt if his is in your way you remove the stymie And that was all the U S G A ruled in suspending it for a year on trial by permission of the Royal and Ancient Golf club of St Andrews which is in Scotland Thus the new ruling merely declares

The stymie is dead long live the stymie

JOHNSON WORKING AT STALEY FIELD

With Candidates for J. M. U. Nine—Play Saturday.

With a fine brand of sun shine dished out Thursday coach Leo Johnson led his Millikin baseball candidates through one of the best sessions of the season at Staley field in an effort to have the men ready for the opener here Saturday with Blackburn College

Johnson has not had much of an opportunity to get a line on the best men for several positions but if the weatherman is on his good behavior Friday will also stage a stiff drill

Johnson was not sure Thursday morning just where the game will be played although he felt that Millikin Field would be all O K if we have no more rain In case of more rain an effort will be made to stage the contest at Staley Field

Decatur fans are anxious to see a ball game and the Millikin nine should have some good support Saturday in their first game.

BAIT FOR BUGS

Up at Peoria they are making plans for the opening day celebration although the players have not as yet reported for Spring practice One of the live wire organizations in the Tractor City is the Association of Commerce They not only boost baseball but every other sport and it was through their efforts that the American Bowling Congress has been held in Peoria on two occasions Peoria is the smallest city in the country to land this classic Lets go Decatur for a real opener May 2

Speaking of Peoria our old friend Ed Tuer writing in the Sporting News has this to say

There is much interest in what the two new clubs in the league Decatur and Danville will show Dan O Leary who is to manage the Decatur entry has been down in Oklahoma for the purpose it appears of getting some surplus from his former boss Jack Holland owner of the Oklahoma City Western League O Leary finished the 1921 season as coach with the Oklahoma team He is reported as having been donated several players by Holland one of them being Ed White a seasoned third sacker Opinion in the Three I however is that ball players not good enough to stick in the Western League will not get very far in the Three I this year

We thought Dan O Leary had joined Fred and the other Peoria ites during the days that Davenport was making Wi Peorians have the ball park talking to ourself Believe that Clarence Rowland who won a world series with the White Sox was the Peoria pilot Dan to a tal op

Fred's chatter didn't look very well especially after he spent a half column telling about Palm a Terre Haute castoff and Ashland from the Dakota League Nobody ever won pennants with South Dakota leaguers

Looks like Bait for Bugs is going to have an awful summer in these clashes with Bloomington and Peoria However we always did think Dan O Leary was one of the best minor league pilots in the country and will continue that way until Messers Sake Jackson and the rest of the gang show something better

Several officers of the Decatur Fans Association including President Hill and Secretary Heil will go to Danville Friday for a big booster meeting Al Tearney Goelzer and Ryan will be there If we are not mistaken Tearney Ryan Goelzer and Hill were present at the time an agreement was made for the Bloomers and Peoria to stay away from Staley players

Fritz Wasem was a visitor in Decatur Wednesday on his way from Bloomington down to southern Illinois Fritz hasn't signed a contract with the Bloomers as yet according to his statement to friends here Wasem is looking fine and didn't make any bones about saying that the coal strike knocked him out of a good baseball job with an independent team

Dont forget the Millikin Blackburn game Saturday The blue and white nine is expected to be the strongest the school has had in several years Let's give Leo Johnson a little encouragement with a good turnout Saturday

President Hill announced Thursday morning that bids will be received for the concession stand at Staley Park until six o'clock Saturday evening Any one desiring to submit bids should make out a bid on a percentage basis and one on a lump sum

The Decatur club will no doubt meet the Illinois Watches here in a couple of week day games Harry Fush is anxious to play and O Leary will probably accommodate him

RACING NOTES.

Firebrand the $40 000 4 year old lately purchased by Jefferson Livingston will probably make his first start of the season in the Camden Handicap at Lexington Thirty four have been named for this mile and a quarter event and Firebrand will no doubt be assigned the top weight

P J Brennan announces he will start Col Winn named for Col Matt J Winn general manager of the Kentucky Jockey Club in the Derby although the colt has never raced it has not shown much in private trials up to date

Ellie Rickenbacher a dangerous horse in any company at six furlongs will not be a factor in the early racing this year as he will spend the spring and summer on the farm of his owner J R Skinker in Virginia A bowed tendon has put him out of commission temporarily at least

Before starting East where he will race until time to come back for the derby St Henry worked a mile at Louisville in 1 43 and did it so easily that there has been something of a rush to bet on this half brother of Sir Martin and Sir Barton John E Madden who bred Sir Henry is managing him for Montfort Jones of Oklahoma

Mavoureen winner of third race at Bowie Wednesday is a daughter of Toots whose first race was won at the Old Fair grounds track St Louis with 30 to 1 against her While walking in the paddock just before that race Toots kicked at Frank Wier knocked his hat off and missed his head an inch or so Wier took the incident as a hunch and played the filly to win

Reservations enough to fill two special trains have been made with G E Herring of the Louisville and Nashville for the Kentucky Derby and booking for a third special train has begun The number who will make the trip to the Derby this year from St Louis and vicinity is estimated at 800 and besides the L and N there will be special trains on the Southern and the Baltimore and Ohio

Jockey C Lang was evidently showing off Wednesday for the benefit of his little brother Albert whom he recently brought from Canada to learn to ride Lang won the first at Bowie with Rosie H the second with Dare and the fifth with Lunetta

GLENN WARNER TO HAVE TOUGH TIME AT PITTSBURGH U.

BY LAWRENCE PERRY.

Pittsburgh's undergraduates and alumni have learned that Glenn Warner the Pitt football coach is now at Leland Stanford conducting spring football practice To say the least the news was received with mixed emotions Some of the emotions are sufficiently high powered to start a stone laden motor truck

While Warner is bound by a contract for two years more of coaching at Pitt he is also under contract to coach at Paloalo when his agreement with the smoky city university expires And in the meantime he is committed to supervise the conduct of football at Stanford So far as spring practice goes Pitt would value Warner's service at Forbes field The versatile coach is face to face with various trite but thorough axioms such as no man can serve two masters a man can be in but one place at a time, etc

There is even horrid rumor that two or three valuable PPittsburgh players will be found at Stanford next fall If so the least that will happen to the former popular Mr Warner will probably be the burning of his effigy in some public and spectacular manner

Who will succeed Warner at Pittsburgh? well, it looks as though the Cards are all dealt in that respect Jock Sutherland is the man Jock has another year to go at La fayette, where he has been so successful But the following season is likely to see Warner let out ahead of his contractual limit and Sutherland installed in his place

SEASON TICKET SALE INCREASES

200 Pledges Secured; More Are Wanted.

Encouraging reports are being received by Mrs. G. D. Steele, chairman of the committee having charge of the securing of pledges for the sale of tickets to the Spring Music festival. This committee which consists of Mrs Steele, Mrs. Della P. Gushard, Mrs. Jessie Newman, Mrs. Alfred Trierweiler and Mrs. Winifred E Drennan, is organizing a systematic canvass of the various civic organizations of the city, the schools and the university.

Mrs. Drennan has assumed responsibility for the schools and H. H. Barr, supervisor of music, is assisting in the grades, T. M. Deam in the high school, Miss Jessie Weller in the conservatory and Donald Swarthout in the university.

TICKETS ON SALE.

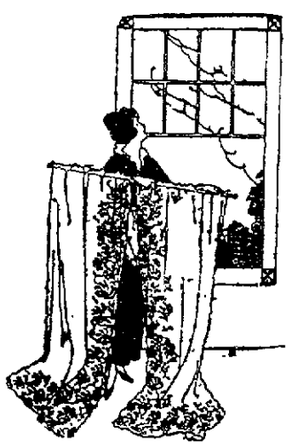

As it will, of course, be impossible to make a personal canvass of the city so as to call on every individual, tickets have been placed on sale at the Emerson Music House and the Haines & Essick bookstore.

For canvassing the various clubs of the city the work has been divided as follows: City club, Mrs. Inez J. Bender; Rotary club, Mrs Della P. Gushard; Kiwanis, Mrs. Jessie Newman; Lions, Mrs. Alfred Trierweiler; Woman's club, Mrs. Eugenie M. Bacon.

Already pledges for more than 200 season tickets have been secured. When this committee on the season ticket sale has completed its work the committee headed by J. H. McEvoy will take up the sale of single admission tickets.

NO LETUP IN BOND ACTIVITY

Investment and Speculative Markets Busy—Rail Bonds Advance.

BY STUART P. WEST.

Wall Street, New York, April 6 — There was no letup in activity today in either investment or speculative markets. The Liberty Bond groups were again all dealt in at or close to par. The French and British external loans also held at their high points, but the two features of more immediate interest were the further advance in railway bonds of the second and third rank and the successful outcome of the Czecho-Slovakia issue.

QUICKLY TAKEN.

The Czecho-Slovakian bonds, part of an authorized $50,000,000 were offered simultaneously in New York, London and Amsterdam and in all cases were promptly oversubscribed In one way, of course, this success was on the improvement in that country's fiscal conditions as shown in the recovery in the Kroner from an almost worthless state to nearly 2 cents on the dollar.

STRONG SECURITY.

But mainly it was due to the unusual security afforded by the impounding of customs and the profits of the tobacco monopoly, which with full allowance for the depreciated currency, is estimated to produce an annual revenue four and a half times the requirements for interest and sinking fund on the present $ per cent bonds

NORMAL COURSE.

On the stock exchange the upward movement continued to pursue a normal course It acquired still greater momentum during the first hour or so, when new high prices were reached all around, and transactions rose to a new maximum for the year But later trading quieted down somewhat and the price movement grew much more irregular as the customary profit taking sales began to make themselves felt.

LITTLE SCALING

The stock market is such a big affair nowadays that it is an exception when there is any uniform scaling one or way or the other. The procedure in a rising market is for some stocks to be bid up, while profits are being drawn down in others There is a constant shifting of speculative capital, producing much uneveness as between individual groups of stocks But the essential point is that the initiative should all lie on the side of advancing prices.

REALIZING FELT.

The characteristics were in evidence again today. There was news to influence the dealings The market was simply showing that the report of trade recovery which have been coming in right along had not yet spent their force upon Wall Street movement. The motors were very strong at the outset but later their advance was held up by realizing sales The railway section gave another display of quiet strength with several rather notable gains

The copper stocks did not respond, as it might have seemed they would, to the statistics for March Those showed that taking home and foreign sales together the total was nearly twice what it was in February and nearly three times that of January The significant thing here is the sharp progressive increase from month to month.

TRADE BROAD ON EXCHANGE TODAY

[By the Associated Press]

New York, April 6—On the stock exchange today the market strengthened as trading broadened in every direction during the morning Sales at noon were estimated at 750,000 shares. Many new high records were made by steels, motors, equipments and rails

Buying of the independent steels especially Vanadium and Replogle as well as U S. Steel and Studebaker, Chandler, General Motors, Westinghouse, Electric Storage Battery, Baldwin and Pressed Steel was accompanied by gains of 1 to 4 points Oils extended their advances and Great Northern Ore, Canadian Pacific and Chicago and Alton were among the other conspicuous features Call money opened at 4½ per cent

The closing was strong.

WORK ON FORDNEY TARIFF BILL ENDS

Washington, April 6—The work of rewriting the 100,000 odd rates in the Fordney tariff bill finally was completed Wednesday by senate finance committee Republicans Consideration of the technical administrative features was begun late in the day and Chairman McCumber is hopeful that the bill can be completed by Saturday.

DRY GOODS.

New York, April 6—Sheetings again carried the burden of the trading in the dry goods market today The demand from China still is in evidence and some mills are fairly well sold up until June and several have withdrawn wide sheetings and pillow cases from sale Bag manufacturers, who have been seeking summer deliveries at concessions, have found little response

The market for wide print cloths was very quiet with prices inclined to softness in some kinds Tire fabrics were quiet and pajamas check dull Some business was done in fine good specialties

The raw silk market was fairly firm but quiet.

OPEN SHOP MINES.

Seattle, April 6—The coal strike has affected only 25 per cent of the commercial mines in Washington as the remainder are being operated under the open shop system. The mines owned and operated by the railroads, however, employ union labor exclusively and these are closed. The base scale for miners in the open shop mines is $6 a day compared with the old union scale of $8 25 per day

Japanese demand for Pacific northwest lumber is increasing steadily and rail and water shipments for domestic consumption also are on the increase Production for the week ending April 1 in western Washington and Oregon was only about ten per cent below normal while new orders were more than seventeen per cent above production.

Good weather has imparted an increase to logging operations in this territory although there is still some snow in the mountains Prices for fire logs are firm while cedar has fallen to a $20 a thousand base. Common labor in logging camps is being paid $3 25 a day

The shoe business in this section has improved materially with unit volume gaining until it is about the same as last year at this time. The dealers report business 20 per cent better than in 1921.

CLEVELAND LABOR.

Cleveland April 6—Re employment is increasing in Cleveland A survey of a hundred representative plants which normally employ 500 or more men each shows 74,711 men at work The largest gain was in the steel industry where five per cent more men were employed than in March.

Ore shipments from Lake Erie ports to the furnaces in the last month totalled 360,519 tons as against 166,000 tons the previous month. There is less ore on the docks and in the furnace yards than there was a year ago Ore shipments have slowed up somewhat this week pending the hearing by the interstate commerce commission relative to the twenty per cent decrease in rates allowed by the railroads but revoked by the commission

The National Acme company, manufacturers of auto parts and radio equipment is operating close to capacity with inquiries more numerous than at any previous time in the history of the company. Its machine plant, however, is still idle The Central Steel company is showing steady progress with the rolling mills working at 100 per cent capacity and the remainder of the plant at 85 per cent. The output is booked well ahead. The Lake Erie Bolt & Nut company has increased its working schedule from 27 hours to 40 hours a week.

GETS STIMULANT.

Kansas City, April 6.—The retail merchants in this territory have begun to feel the stimulation of spring. This is especially evident in dry goods, shoes, clothing and millinery. Confidence in the future is increasing in the mid-west with continuation of favorable crop conditions and better prices for farm products Evidence of the turn for the better in the financial situation is seen in the fact that banks have been able to take care of the spring money requirements of the farmers which normally require a huge sum, without heavy borrowings from the reserve bank or outside banks.

Kansas City's bread war which was in full blast a few weeks ago has ended and the 5 cent loaf disappeared again. The eight cent loaf and 12 cent loaf have returned Bakers deny that there was any agreement as to the abandonment of the price cutting competition.

The zinc and lead ore markets in the tri-state field have not been adversedly affected by the coal strike as was anticipated Prices are holding firm and figures for the first quarter of the year show material advances above the levels which obtained at this time in 1921.

There have been 196 new business concerns established in this city in the last year with combined annual payrolls of $1 483,000

COTTON.

New York, April 6.—There were rallies in the cotton market today, owing to renewed nervousness over weather and crop conditions in the south The new crop months, which were easy while scattering liquidation was in progress yesterday, were relatively firm today on the reports of unsettled weather in the eastern belt, suggesting delays in farm work similar to those reported in western belt sections during the earlier part of the week. The buying was not active or general, but the scattering liquidation of yesterday left the market comparatively free of selling orders, and it did not require a great deal of demand to cause the advance in prices.

The market opened steady at a decline of one point on May, but generally unchanged to 8 points higher, and by mid-morning was 10 to 17 points above last night's closing prices Realizing was attracted as prices approached the 18 cent level for May and above the 17 cent mark for December, however, and advances were not fully maintained.

MAY WHEAT IN PRICE SETBACK

Market Close Unsettled—Corn Has Same Trend—Slight Gain.

Chicago, April 6.—Unfavorable crop reports from the southwest tended to bring about higher prices for wheat today during the early dealings. A leading expert advised that the crop in general was very late and was likely to deteriorate in a rapid manner if the weather proved as dry as usual during May. Comparative firmness of Liverpool quotations helped also to lift values here. The opening, which varied from unchanged figures to ⅞c higher, with May $1.29⅞ to $1.30½ and July $1.18¾ to $1.19, was followed by moderate gains all around, and then something of a reaction.

Subsequently, selling of wheat to go into storage here led to a decided setback in the price of May delivery, which went to 11c over July, as against 15 cents over at one time earlier in the week. The close was unsettled, with May at $1.30¼ to $1.30⅝, and July $1.18⅞ to $1.19.

Wet weather was more or less responsible for an upturn in corn and oats prices. After opening ⅛c off to a shade advance, July 61½, the corn market scored fair general gains.

Later the market eased off somewhat with wheat The close was unsettled at ⅜c to 1⅛c net advance, with July at 62c to 62½c.

Oats started at ⅛c decline to a 1⅛c advance. July 38⅞ to 38⅜c and then climbed a little in all the deliveries.

Provisions were easier notwithstanding higher quotations on hogs. Smallness of provision shipments from here as compared with a year ago attracted considerable notice

Berry on Stand Tells of Threats of Hanrahan

family had lived in Deland three years; that her husband was in the restaurant business there until last September, when he quit it because of physical disability; indicated the location of their home after they left the restaurant building, said that her husband did not reach home for supper on the night of the tragedy, last Nov. 4; gave the members of the family as her husband, herself, a daughter Anna and son Ralph, and said that she had never seen her husband with a gun or revolver.

This practically constituted her testimony, given in a few minutes, and she was not cross examined.

BICKEL FIRST WITNESS.

J. C. Bickel of Deland was the first witness called by the state. It was he to whom Berry surrendered his gun after the shooting, and who took Berry into custody and held him until the arrival of Sheriff Gale from Monticello.

Bickel testified that he and Berry met immediately after the shooting, and that Berry handed him the revolver with this remark: "Here, take this. I shot Hanrahan; he made me do it"

Bickel said that while in his custody Berry was very nervous and that he was on the point of crying, though there were no tears.

LETTER INVOLVED.

A typewritten copy of a letter the young man had sent to Anna Hanrahan, seems to have figured in the tragedy, and had something to do with working Berry to a point of desperation. The copy was returned to him by Hanrahan. It is said, and this stirred him deeply.

To Bickel he said that he met Hanrahan and said, "What are you trying to do to me?" Hanrahan's reply according to Berry's story, was:

"I am going to make a damn fool of you." Berry further told Bickel that Hanrahan ordered him to take off his glasses, and that when he refused, the older man raised his hand as if to strike him. It was then the shots were fired

DYING MAN'S ACCUSATION.

The slain man's dying accusation of Berry was elicited from L. E. Cathcart, who was first at Hanrahan's side after he was shot. He testified that the dying man said to him, "Berry shot me."

Testimony as to the shots fired and the location of certain buildings with reference to where the shooting took place, was given by J. B. Souders, Irl Cathcart, I. C. Bowsher, J. W. Adams and others.

J. C. Timmons, Hanrahan's successor in the restaurant business told of Berry's eating supper at the restaurant shortly before the shooting, and on cross examination said there was nothing unusual in his demeanor.

LETTERS AGAIN.

The state sought to substantiate the charge that Berry was seeking Hanrahan on the night of the killing, by the testimony of various witnesses. One of these was S. F. Tapscott, a barber

Tapscott said that both Hanrahan and Berry were in his place of business shortly before the shooting, but not at the same time; that Berry had entered, showed him an unopened envelope and asked him if he knew anything about that. Tapscott said he did not, whereupon Berry turned about and went out. Later he saw Berry looking in the window while Hanrahan was in the shop

On cross examination counsel for the defense pressed the question as to whether Tapscott did know something about the letter which Berry had, and by his questions indicated that it had been prepared and sent to him by one Walker, a barber in the shop who recently left the state and that it was intended to goad and tantalize Berry. Tapscott denied that he knew anything of it.

WAS OFFERED GUN.

Cecil Bowsher, garage mechanic, testified at some length. He told of hearing a shot and then of seeing three flashes of a gun. Immediately afterward Berry approached him with the revolver extended in his hand, with the request that he take it

"What the hell do you mean? What have you done?" Bowsher said he asked Berry, whereupon the latter said:

"He made me do it. You know what this means for me."

Bowsher turned to finish washing his hands and when he turned back Berry had disappeared.

DOCTOR TELLS OF WOUNDS.

Dr. G. S. Walker of Deland was on the stand early in the afternoon to tell of the wounds he found in Hanrahan's body. He said there were two, one to the left of the navel and about two inches above the anterior superior spine of the ilium, and the other five inches from that, toward the back portion of the body. In the doctor's opinion the holes were bullet wounds, and were the cause of Hanrahan's death

On cross examination defense counsel sought to entangle the doctor as to the exact location of the wounds, but the physician stuck to his previous story, explaining an apparent discrepancy between his testimony Wednesday and that before the coroner's jury, by saying that after he had testified on the night of the killing, he had made measurements of the wounds and their location, and therefore spoke accurately Wednesday.

POWDER BURNED.

On cross examination the doctor said there were powder burns on Hanrahan's body and the middle joint of the index finger of the right hand, which was blackened and oozing blood.

HE KNOWS AN OATH.

Lyle Quincy Cathcart, eleven years old and a school pupil of the sixth grade, was on the witness stand to tell of having seen Berry standing between two buildings where the tragedy took place a few minutes later.

At the instance of the defense Judge Boggs questioned the boy as to his understanding of the nature of the oath he had taken.

"Do you know what it meant when you raised your hand and the clerk said something to you and you said 'yes' to it?" asked the court.

"Yes, that meant to tell the truth," replied the boy.

"Do you understand what would happen if one did not tell the truth?"

"Yes; arrest him," came the quick answer.

"What else?" queried the judge.

"Fine him."

"Yes," said the court, "but you go to Sunday school don't you? When a boy dies what becomes of a good boy?"

"Why, he goes to Heaven," smiled the lad.

"But if he is a bad boy?" pressed the court.

"Then he would go to the bad place," responded the boy, and court and counsel agreed that the lad had a very clear idea of the nature of an oath, and his examination proceeded.

At times the boy thought a little faster than he talked, though that was by no means slow, and tried to tell of too many things in one sentence, but he told a straightforward story of seeing Berry at the point in question, and of speaking to him but getting no response.

When asked by Attorney Herrick as to how many times he had talked this over with other persons, the lad answered quickly and with naive that brought laughter from the court room crowd "Oh, not so terribly many."

SYMPATHY FOR BERRY.

Expressions of sympathy for the accused youth were heard from different persons Wednesday, as from certain statements and evidence it was apparent that he had been sinned against, as well as sinning. It was said that he had been made the butt of ridicule because of his infatuation for the daughter of his victim, and that there had been many acts on the part of disinterested persons to do what he says John Hanrahan declared he was going to do, "make a damn fool of him."

Berry's father, Frank Berry, sits with his son in the court room, just back of his counsel

The witnesses were separated at the opening of the trial, none being allowed in the court room until they were called to the stand.

Even standing room is taken at every session of the trial, and the women spectators nearly equal the number of men. A large number of boys and girls were present after school hours.

Attorney J. L. Hicks of Monticello is assisting the state's attorney.

LOCAL MARKET REMAINS STEADY

Hogs Show Strength; Eggs Firm Under Heavy Supply.

Grain prices remain unchanged locally. Both futures and cash were steady with the industrial demand for corn not overly strong but with light receipts.

Hogs continue to show great strength but local packers made no change in quotations.

In spite of enormous receipts of eggs at the great terminal markets the prices hold firm. Poultry is also steady with a great demand in the east for all offerings of good quality.

ARCOLA MAN TRIED ON CRUELTY CHARGE

Jury Couldn't Agree on Verdict.

Arcola April 6—Jacob Webb, farmer was tried on a charge of cruelty to animals before Justice [illegible] here Wednesday morning. A jury of twelve men heard the evidence deliberated over it for three hours and then announced that they could not agree. They stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction.

The suit was started on complaint of residents of the south part of Arcola whose testimony was to the effect that they saw Mr. Webb shoot the animal which had been injured on the railroad and had a broken leg. After the shooting he put a chain about its neck, hitched the chain to the back end of a wagon and dragged it off kicking. As it occurred just outside of the city limits a state case was made of it and States Attorney Robert Cotton was called to prosecute.

WEBB'S STORY.

On the stand Mr. Webb testified that the horse had been driven to town but broke loose and started home. In crossing a culvert on the I. C. tracks it broke a leg. When he learned of the animal's crippled condition he made arrangements with another man who was to kill the animal and bury it. The man failed to keep his part of the agreement and the horse hobbled about for a day. When Mr. Webb learned that it had not been put out of misery he disposed of the animal himself. He shot it twice with a small calibre rifle. At the second shot his team started [illegible] and he had to quiet them. Then he approached the horse to shoot it again but the animal walked away a short distance and then fell. He claims that the fall broke its neck, and that it was then he put the chain about its neck and hauled it off.

WALTER STOLLEY.

Funeral services for Walter F. Stolley, of this city, who died at the hospital in Tuscola, Tuesday night, are to be held Thursday afternoon. There will be a short service at the family home, West Main street, at 1.30 o'clock. At 2.15 there will be another service in the Arcola M. E. church. Rev. A. H. Flagge, the pastor, will officiate. Interment will be in the Arcola cemetery.

Mr. Stolley was taken to the Tuscola hospital two weeks ago Friday. The following day a surgical operation was performed for an obstruction of the bowels. This was followed by a minor operation the next day. At the time his condition was regarded as critical but later he began to improve and was considered safely on the road to recovery when he suffered a relapse early Tuesday morning.

Walter Frank Stolley, son of George and Anna Stolley, prominent among the pioneer families of this community, was born on a farm near Arcola August 2, 1890. Practically all his life was spent in this community. During the late war he was called into the service and trained at Camp Taylor. He was a member of the Arcola Post of the American Legion.

His parents have been dead for several years. Surviving him are three brothers, Hans, of Atwood, William and George, of Arcola, and two sisters, Mrs. Emma Stump and Miss Katharyn, also residents of Arcola.

Stinging.

Prairie Farmer "I believe" shouted the very militant general, "in fighting an enemy with his own weapons! That's what I advocate!"

"Tell me," came a meek voice from the end of the hall, "tell me, how long does it take you to sting a wasp?"

Zoning Commission Named by Borchers

Will Draw Up Ordinance for City; Can Not Change Present Conditions.

Mayor C. M. Borchers Thursday announced the names of his appointees to the zoning commission which will draw up a zoning ordinance for the city of Decatur. The names offered by the mayor and confirmed by the council are James M. Allen, Barkley B. Brooks, John H. McEvoy, Tom W. Pitner and Philip Kayser.

These men must appear and qualify within a week and they will elect their own chairman.

WHO THEY ARE.

James M. Allen is manager of the Shellabarger Mill & Elevator Co., B. B. Brooks is the well known architect of the firm of Brooks, Bramhall & Dague, John H. McEvoy is manager of the Home Manufacturing Co., makers of women's and children's dresses, Tom W. Pitner is head of T. W. Pitner & Co., burial shoe manufacturers, and Philip Kayser was formerly foreman of the Decatur Bridge Co.

This commission has just one duty to perform—to draw up a zoning ordinance for the city of Decatur. When that is done the commission expires and the duty of enforcing that ordinance passes into other hands, the city plan commission which is to be appointed next Monday, and an "enforcing officer."

HAS SPECIFIC POWERS.

This commission was appointed under the ordinance which was recently passed by the city council and it has certain powers which are specifically confered upon it by the statute which was passed in 1921.

These powers, however, do not "deprive the owner of any existing property of its use or maintenance for the purpose to which it is then lawfully devoted" and the commission will have no power to change existing conditions by the zoning ordinance which it will draw up.

FOLLOW CITY PLAN.

It is expected that the commission will follow the city plan in its creation of boundaries and regulations on which it must have public hearings just as public improvements must have public hearings.

There will also be established, as directed by the statute, a board of appeals which shall continue to function when the zoning commission shall have ceased to exist after the ordinance which it will prepare shall have been finally adopted.

BOARD OF APPEALS.

This board of appeals shall consist of not less than three nor more than five members and shall be appointed by the mayor as the zoning commission was appointed. The board of appeals shall have power "upon application to review the actions of the enforcing officer in order to determine whether or not they are in accordance with the terms of the ordinance, and also to recommend to the city council such ordinances or amendments as it may deem necessary or desirable, including power in specific cases of particular hardship to recommend variations of the original ordinance."

DUTIES OF COMMISSION.

The duties of the commission are to adopt an ordinance which will zone the city, that is, lay off the city in general districts which shall, in the future, be devoted, generally speaking, to the purposes which the zoning plan or ordinance will specify.

In laying out the plan for districts it is expected that the general outlines of the city plan made by M. H. West for Decatur's city planning commission will be followed.

CAN NOT CHANGE PRESENT.

It must be remembered that neither the zoning commission nor the city plan commission can change what is already established. It can, however, provide for the future.

It can regulate and limit the height and bulk of buildings hereafter to be erected.

It can regulate and limit the intensity of the use of lot areas and determine the area of open spaces within and surrounding such buildings.

It can classify, regulate and restrict the location of trades and industries, and the location of buildings designed for specified industrial, business, residential and other uses.

DIVIDE CITY.

It can divide the entire city into districts of such number, shape, area and of such different classes (according to the use of land and buildings, height and bulk of buildings, intensity of the use of the areas, area of open spaces, or other classification) as it may deem best fitted to carry out the purpose of zoning and city planning.

It also has the power to prohibit uses, buildings or structures incompatible with the character of the districts as designed and to prevent additions to and alterations in existing buildings or structures in such a way as to avoid the restrictions and limitations imposed under the zoning ordinance.

TO HOLD HEARINGS.

But due allowance must be made, says the state law, for existing conditions, the conservation of property values, and the direction of building development to the best advantage of the city.

The commission shall prepare a tentative report and zoning ordinance and then it must hold hearings on this tentative plan so that any one interested may be heard. Hearings must be advertised for fifteen days in advance.

Then, after all the hearings have been held, the zoning commission will make up its final report and submit a proposed ordinance to the city council. The city council may pass the ordinance unchanged, it may make changes in it or it may refer it back to the zoning commission with suggestions for changes.

THE PURPOSE OF ZONING.

The whole purpose of zoning as stated in the preamble to the statute which provides for the creation of such a commission with such powers is to the end that adequate light, pure air, and safety from fire and other dangers may be secured, that the taxable value of land and buildings throughout the city may be conserved, that congestion in the public streets may be lessened or avoided and that public health, safety, comfort, morals and welfare may be otherwise promoted.

Many hearings will doubtless be held on the provisions of the ordinance to be proposed when the commission has worked it out to the best of its own ability.

TO GO BY TRAIN TO STONINGTON

County Bridge Again in Condition.

After getting reports of road conditions along the route to Stonington the Decatur Motor club abandoned the plan of using automobiles to take the Decatur delegation to the Stonington road meeting Thursday night. The party will leave Decatur at 6:50 and arrangements have been made to stop a Wabash fast train at Stonington for the return trip.

Decatur is still practically cut off from highway communication with the surrounding country. There is no road to Springfield. Mt. Pulaski notified the Motor club that roads thereabouts would not be usable before Friday. A man from Mattoon drove into Decatur Wednesday afternoon after a hard trip.

DELAWARE TOURIST.

A tourist from Delaware came into Decatur by way of the East William street road. While he managed to get through he was stuck three times. He left his car in Decatur and will go on to his destination, Peoria, by train returning for the automobile later.

The warning sign at the south end of the county bridge was removed and this road is now reported as usable. There has been some work done on it.

The Cowford grade is still under water, likewise the approach to the Maffit bridge.

PAY $50,000 TO L. N. COPE & SON

Total Fee to Be About $70,000.

Decatur has ordered the first payment to L. N. Cope & Son, contractors for the building of the water impounding dam, which the firm has had on its actual fee for the work and this first payment to be made is the nifty sum of $50,000.

Since the work was started twenty-two months ago the firm has drawn no money on its fee of $70,000 for doing the work and on recommendation of J. Albert Holmes, chief engineer for Pearse, Greeley & Hansen, consulting engineers on the water impounding project, this amount of $50,000 was approved.

The total fee is dependent somewhat on the actual total cost, decreasing varying slightly as the cost increases above the original base price of $700,000. The work is now so nearly completed that the margin of $20,000 left in the unpaid portion of the fee is known to be ample.

The remainder is then paid to the Decatur Water Supply Co., for pay off the bonds of that company.

THOMAS COOPER DROWNS NEAR CUBA

Was Operator At Mt. Zion and Hervey City.

Peoria division employes of the Pennsylvania railroad, especially the road men, were somewhat shocked to hear the report of the death of Thomas R. Cooper, former agent and operator of the company at Mt. Zion and also at Hervey City. According to word received from the navy department at Washington, D. C., he was drowned somewhere in the vicinity of Cuba, probably Tuesday, although no details were given. His body had not been recovered Wednesday.

Cooper, who was forty years old, was a wireless operator in the navy. He went to work for the railroad as an operator back in 1900 and remained with this company continuously, putting in most of his time at Mt. Zion and Hervey. When the war broke out, he enlisted in the navy and after the war, liked the work so well that he re-enlisted. He retained his name on the railroad's seniority and employment list until last October, when he resigned. He was back here on a visit only a few months ago. His parents reside at Minier, Ill.

IN WEEKLY PAPER.

This is one of the principal items which appeared Thursday in the first issue of "The Peoria Division Athlete," a two page weekly newspaper just off the machines in the Decatur offices of the company. O. R. Perkins, operator in the division offices here, originated the idea and was the principal promoter of the plan.

The plan is to issue the paper each week, carrying general news from all over the division. The first issue has two cartoons by Perkins, some good sporting news, a number of good jokes and some general news, both sides of the two sheets being used.

It is issued without cost to all employes and all employes are asked to contribute to its success. Continuance of the weekly will depend upon the co-operation secured.

Charley Ball Back.

Charley Ball, Wabash passenger conductor and now the oldest on the 9th and 13th districts, has returned from his annual winter trip to Florida and is at his home in Danville. He is expected in Decatur in a day or two to make his choice of jobs.

A. S. Bland, Peoria division engineer of the M. of W. department of the Pennsylvania, is still very ill at his home. Mr. Bland, who spent several weeks in the east for treatment, returned home more than a week ago.

99 Injured.

The February report for the Wabash safety committee shows that out of 13,430 employes on the road during the month, only 99 were injured. This is only .73 per cent. Of the thirteen terminals, divisions and shops, the Decatur locomotive and car shops was in 8th place or just below the average with 1629 employes and 12 injuries or .74 per cent while the Decatur division dropped into twelfth place with 18 injuries among 1505 employes, a total of 1.19 per cent.

Railroad Notes.

H. L. Hatfield, castings clerk at the Wabash locomotive shops, is getting along fairly well in the local hospital, following an operation for appendicitis last Monday night. Hatfield first began feeling a little bad Saturday afternoon and continued to grow worse until a physician was called in Monday evening. He had Hatfield rushed to the hospital and operated upon immediately.

Wabash Fireman S. D. Smith was called to Sidney Thursday morning because of the serious illness of his mother, who was to undergo an operation. His brother, C. A. "Sidney" Swift is still in the hospital with pneumonia but is reported improving.

William F. Schepper, boilermaker at the Wabash roundhouse, who has been in Hot Springs for about ten days, has returned home and will go back to work Friday.

One blacksmith and three helpers have been put back to work at the Wabash car shops and one blacksmith on the big hammer at the locomotive shops.

Engineer Galligan of the Wabash north end freight service is marked off because of an injury to his hand. He suffered some slight burns on his hand but didn't pay a great deal of attention to the injury and kept on working until his physician ordered him to discontinue.

The Wabash extra engineers board on the 9th and 13th districts was reduced to five men Wednesday, making a total of five cut off. The five cut off were Buck, Rosbach, H. T. Koeppe, Spies and Cunningham. Koeppe bumped Ellers from Nos. 9-12, Rosbach bumped Buchanan from Nos. 17-10 and Cunningham bumped Poe from a yard job.

Wabash car shops workers received their ballots Wednesday for a referendum vote on whether to accept a piece work wage agreement or not.

Exceptions charged to all divisions on the Illinois Central in March totaled 3902 as compared with 3886 in February. The Springfield division had 126 as compared with 85 in the previous month and the Indiana division had 194 as compared with 116.

The Wabash is sending forty flat cars to the E. J. and E. connection on the north end to be loaded with steel rail for the Wabash.

Had one been traveling through the Wabash yards Thursday morning, he might have noticed employes drop their tools and gaze. He might have seen part of the roundhouse force leave their machines and go gaze out the window. All the excitement was due to Foreman T. M. Strain of the M. of W. department who was walking down the track without his umbrella.

In February, the Wabash was hanging up a record with grain and coal loading and now, due to strike and bad roads, there was not one car of coal or grain loaded on the Decatur division Wednesday.

The Illinois Central has discontinued the night agencies at Macon and Patoka, due to the slump in the freight business.

Estimates made by a big brokerage house on earnings per share of a number of the railroads for the first two months of 1922 are as follows: Wabash "A" $5; Pennsylvania, $8; Northern Pacific, $3; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, $16; C. and E. I. $4.50, Norfolk and Western, $12.

TO ESTIMATE COST CANTRELL SUBWAY

Council Orders Engineer to Make Plans.

First definite steps looking to the construction of a subway in Cantrell street to run under Broadway were taken Thursday when the city council passed a resolution instructing the consulting engineer to make plans and specifications with estimates as to the cost of doing the work.

This is the subway which will open East Cantrell street to Franklin street on the west. Cantrell street to be extended for that purpose.

This improvement has been talked of for many years and it is hoped by putting in the subway to do away with that dangerous dip and turn from Broadway down to Cantrell at the brewery and battling works.

CAN NOT COLLECT COAL MONEY YET

Van Praag Finally Withdraws Motion.

"If Mr. Van Praag will permit Mr. Monroe to run the legal end and will permit me to run the financial department of the city's business I think we will get along" said Commissioner J. F. Montgomery after the commissioner of streets had introduced a motion Thursday to proceed to collect the judgment which had been secured by the city against the Decatur Coal Co. for the alleged overcharge on coal made last year.

The judgment is not yet collectible, under the law, explained the corporation counsel and the mayor. The motion of the street commissioner that the money when collected be divided, one third to the police, one third to the health and one third to the water department was also said by the mayor to be beyond the power of the city council. The money must go to the general fund or it can be used for emergency purposes—"such as you will have in the bill for fixing that sewer where the big hole is in Industry Court."

It cannot be appropriated otherwise. The coal company still has time to appeal and the motion made by the street commissioner was wholly without effect or power, even if passed. It was withdrawn by its maker when the futility of it was explained by the corporation counsel and the mayor.

LEGION SHOW CAST NOT NAMED

Start Intensive Rehearsals At Once.

Announcement is still withheld of the definite selection of the cast for "Now You're Talking," the sparkling musical comedy which the American Legion will present at the Lincoln Square on the evenings of May 10, 11. It is assured that certain stars of other amateur productions in Decatur will appear again behind the footlights including Miss Marjorie Landon, and Miss June Fisher, who were prominent in last year's play, also Freeman Wilmeth, Arthur Metzler, and Harold Sampson, who may be depended upon to give interpretations of the highest type.

Rehearsal was held Wednesday night and is scheduled again for Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Elks Ball Room. Starting next week intensive rehearsal will be held three times a week.

Miss Annettia Van Dyke, who is in charge of the dance numbers is busy selecting the costumes and dances including a number of eccentric numbers, which will round out a musical comedy which includes smart dialogue, snappy lyrics, an amusing plot, and twinkling original musical numbers.

Decatur will be advertised through a display advertisement which the H. Mueller Manufacturing Co., will carry in the April 8 number of The Saturday Evening Post and in a large number of the metropolitan journals on Sunday, April 9, a combined circulation of 7,212,261.

The article so widely advertised by the local manufacturing firm is the new tub shower faucet which the visitors to the Mueller factory for the last year have seen demonstrated. The page advertisement in The Saturday Evening Post costs the company $7,000 for the single issue and the display carried in the newspapers on the following Sunday costs another $2,000.

SUNSET CREST WANTS PAVING

City to Establish Boundaries First.

Residents in Sunset Crest, that addition just west of the Dreamland addition to Fairview Park, are anxious to have paving for their streets but owing to some uncertainty as to the city boundaries there the city council Thursday instructed the city engineer to check up the surveys. In spite of the fact that the property owners living south of the Interurban Way, between the interurban tracks, and West Main street, do not want paving the residents of the Sunset Crest addition want their streets improved.

It is expected that when the city boundaries are determined there that ordinances for the desired paving will be passed.

Want to Tap Main.

Property owners in South Stone street, a short street south of East Cantrell street, asked permission to tap a water main on East Moore street so that they might have water immediately for a number of houses on that street, rather than wait for the completion of the East Cantrell water main which has been ordered. This permission was granted on the usual conditions—that the property owners would not object to the assessments made on them when the water main which would naturally supply that territory is laid.

ORDER PLANS FOR SOUTHEAST SEWER

Riverside District to Be Served.

Much work was laid out for the city engineer's office Thursday when the city council passed a sweeping resolution directing the consulting engineer to prepare plans, specifications and estimates for the sewer needed to give the Riverside district an intercepting sewer and other sewers "to any other parts of the city not now provided with sufficient sewerage."

Every meeting of the city council during this wet spring has been marked by requests of house owners in the north, northeast or southeast parts of the city for relief from the flood waters which have filled cellars, wells, vaults and all low places in yards and streets.

START PLANS.

The city officials have come to the conclusion that the way to get relief for these various sections of the city is to start on plans for the needed sewers.

"All the work which is being planned cannot possibly be done this year," remarked C. R. Andrew, city engineer Thursday as the council passed these short resolutions for much city work.

The corporation counsel's office and the office of the city engineer is being swamped with the legal and technical work which the many city projects already planned involve. The big street paving program, the many water mains which are being asked for and the ordinary city work are together giving these two departments of the city all that they can handle.

GUARD RAILS TO COST CONSIDERABLE

Will Be About $2,700 Per Mile Is Estimate.

Guard rails for the various approaches to the bridges which have been raised by the Decatur Water Supply Co. will cost a pretty penny before they are completed.

The company is determined that the rails shall be substantial and permanent, built of heavy timber and the cost has been estimated to run about fifty-five cents a running foot, or about $2,700 a mile.

The rails for the Lo: Bridge approaches alone will run over $2,500.

The total for all the approaches will run into several thousand dollars.
